Seize the day

Another year has gone by. For some of us, it is our last year in high school. For some, there is one more year of homework, cafeteria food and adolescent life ahead. It's hard to believe that we have been going to school for over ten years. What have we accomplished in that time? Have we done everything we said we were going to do? For the most part, I think that there is a lot of living that has passed all of us by. But it's not too late to start. Our lives as people, not kids, is just beginning. Now is the time to start living. Take control of your life. We didn't slave for all these years for nothing. We all must have learned something about our world, or ourselves in school. Now is the time to use what we know. We're only young once, and we're young now.

In a recent film The Dead Poet's Society Robin Williams acts as a teacher who makes his students aware of there own mortality by looking over the fading photographs of students and teams from years long since past. His moral is that all these individuals are gone, dead; yet they shared the same common hopes and aspirations as contemporary teenagers. His moral is "Carpe Diem" or the idea that what distinguishes one individual from another both present and past is there ability to live life to the fullest to "seize the day." Our school is unique as it is the oldest and richest in heritage North of San Francisco and West of Winnipeg and so we thought we would show you glimpses from the past. As for us these glimpses hopefully will inspire you to remember "Carpe Diem" or as a contemporary slogan reminds us "Just do it".

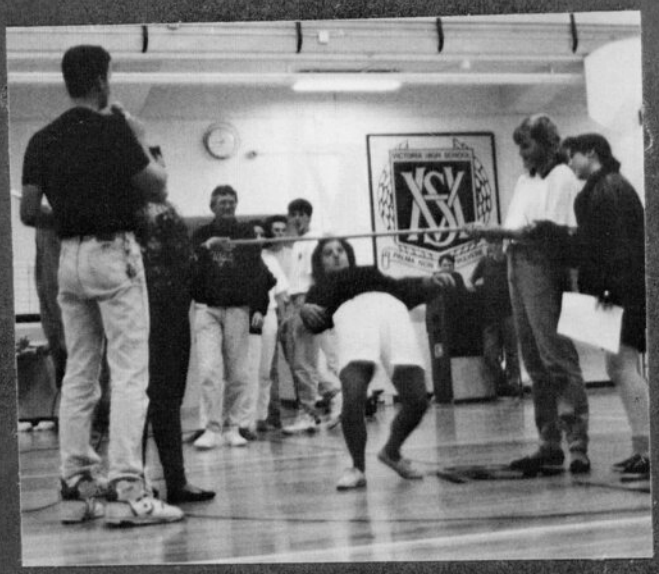
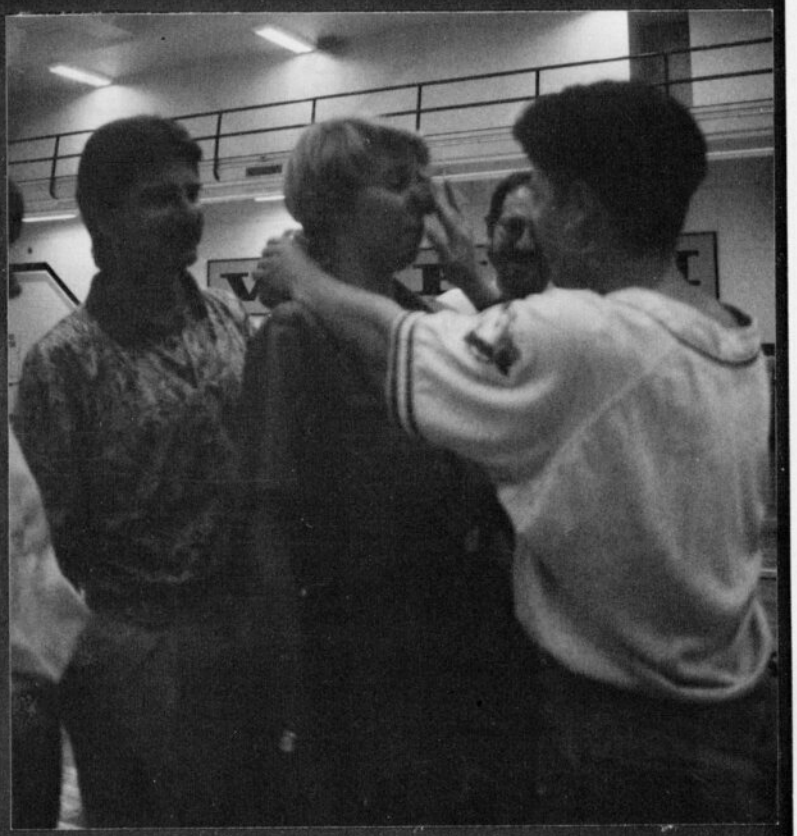
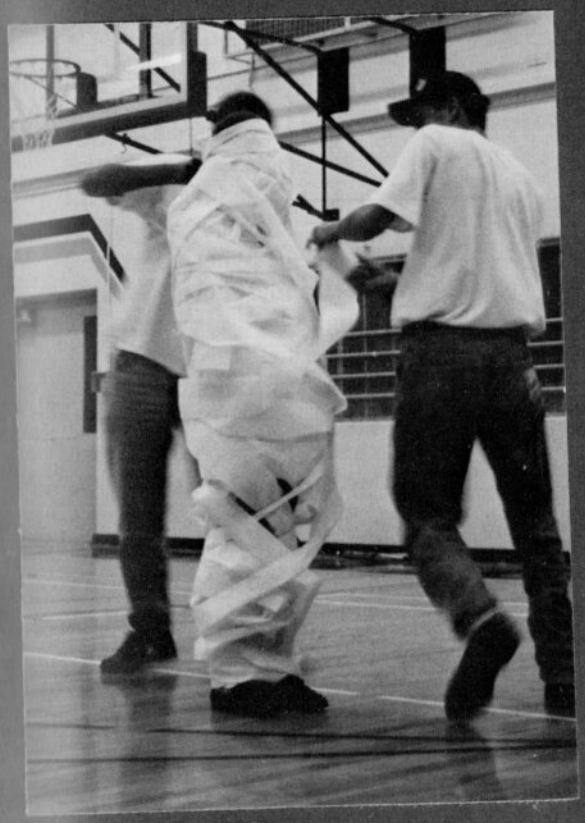
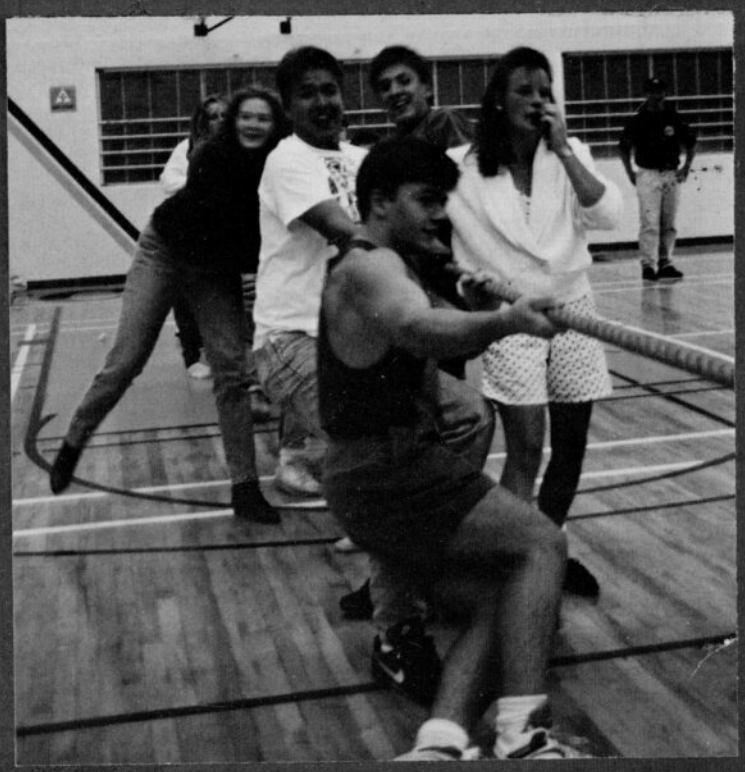
Welcome to another year of students and teachers having fun with peanut butter and obstical races! Every year we students are forced into having fun with teachers reverting back to their childhood. How many brave soles do you know that would risk their lives with such horror ; come watch your friends, it's free entertianment.









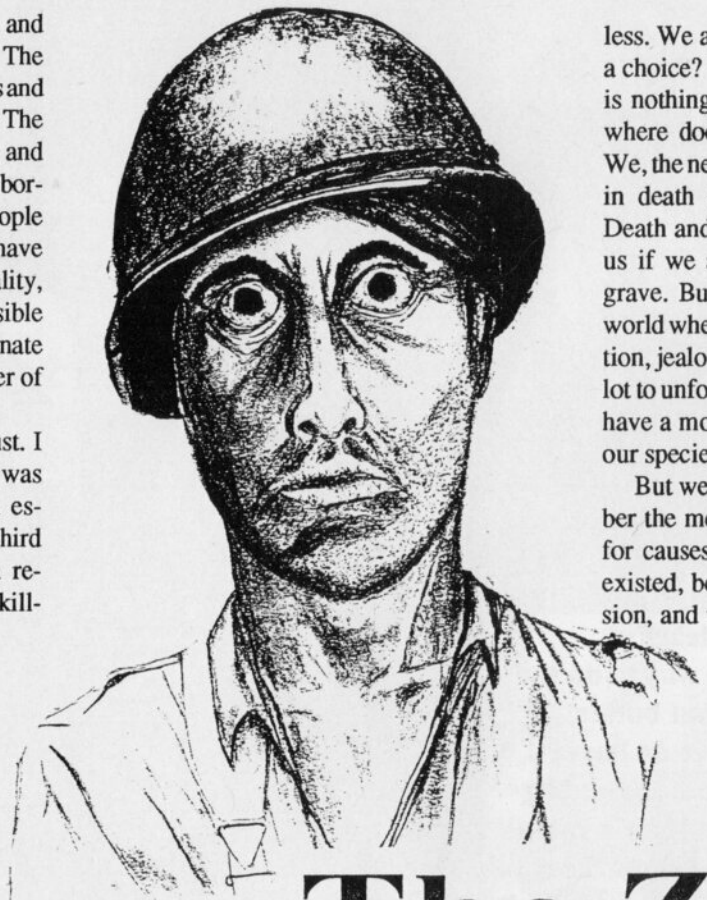
Students and teachers showing the proper way to do the mummy wrap, peanut butter relay, tug o' war. We do have some pictures of the sleeping bag clothing change, but their x rated! Therefore we cannot show them to you, Sorry .....

Remembrance Day

REMEMBRANCE DAY. By: Andrew Morrison.

Every year we take a day off to pay our respects to the millions of soldiers and civilians who have died in the great wars of this violent century. We stand stoically on the grounds of the Parliament Buildings, while some veterans are reduced to tears. I know that some of you don't like to think about the millions who have died protecting and preserving your beliefs, culture, and your way of life. But you must realize the significance of our grandfathers and great-grandfathers generation. The wars shaped political ideologies and families, possibly your own. The atrosities of euphoric victory and shameful loss have drawn new borders and freed oppressed people throughout the world. They have created a more disturbing reality, where thoughtless and irresponsible leaders have the power to eliminate the human race in a mere matter of days.

Some people ask if war is just. I can only say that it depends. It was just to go to Adolf Hitler. In essence, the Allies created the Third Reich. But still the dilemna remains; how can you justify the killing of fellow human beings? War is immoral and inhumane. We must not repeat the hideous tragedies of this century. We must acquire a new "manner of thinking" before we succeed in creating the new renaissance or New World Order of peace and prosperity.



When we do remember the unfortunate individuals who died, and pay homage to the survivors, we must remember our enemies as well. They fought for their beliefs, as did we. Death is not biased, yet the living are. Death does not care what you believe in, or what the colour of your skin is, yet the living do. The living go to the grave unequal, but once inside they are nothing, a piece of history, meaningless. We are the living, do we have a choice? To find equality in death is nothing to look forward to, yet where does that leave the living? We, the new generation cannot hide in death as our fore-fathers did. Death and persecution can't touch us if we are equal outside of the grave. But how do we discover a world where there is no descrimination, jealousy, and hate? We have a lot to unfold and to examine, for we have a moral responsibilty to right our species wrongs.

But we will continue to remember the men and women who died for causes that should never have existed, because we have compassion, and we forgive their narrow-minded policies of conquest and power..

We remember.....

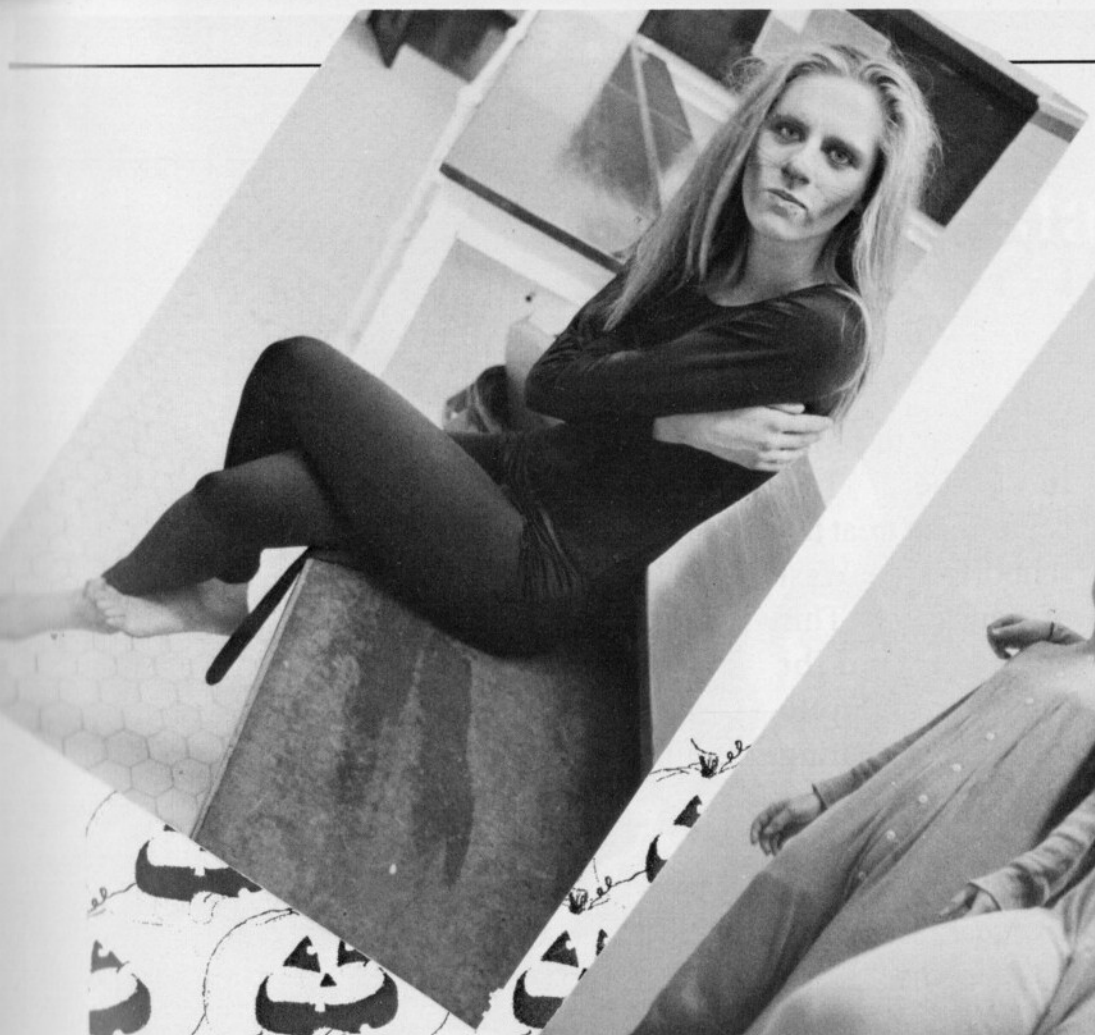
Halloween

Dance

Halloween

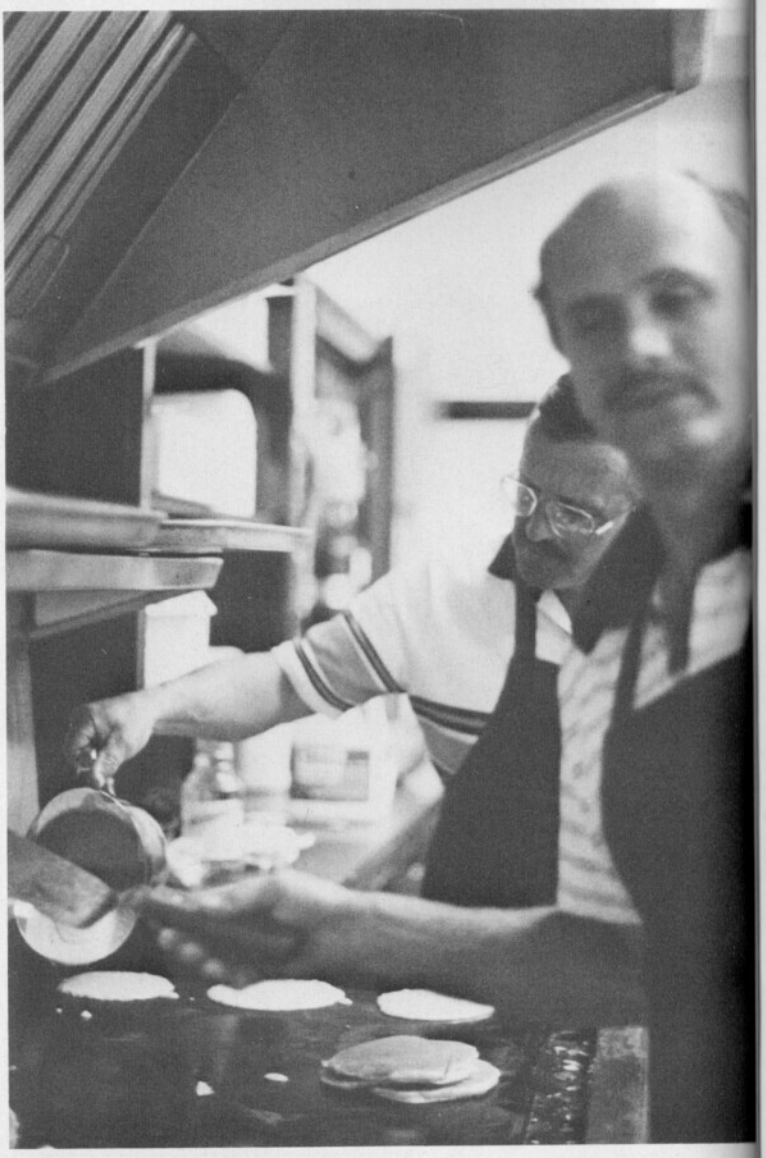


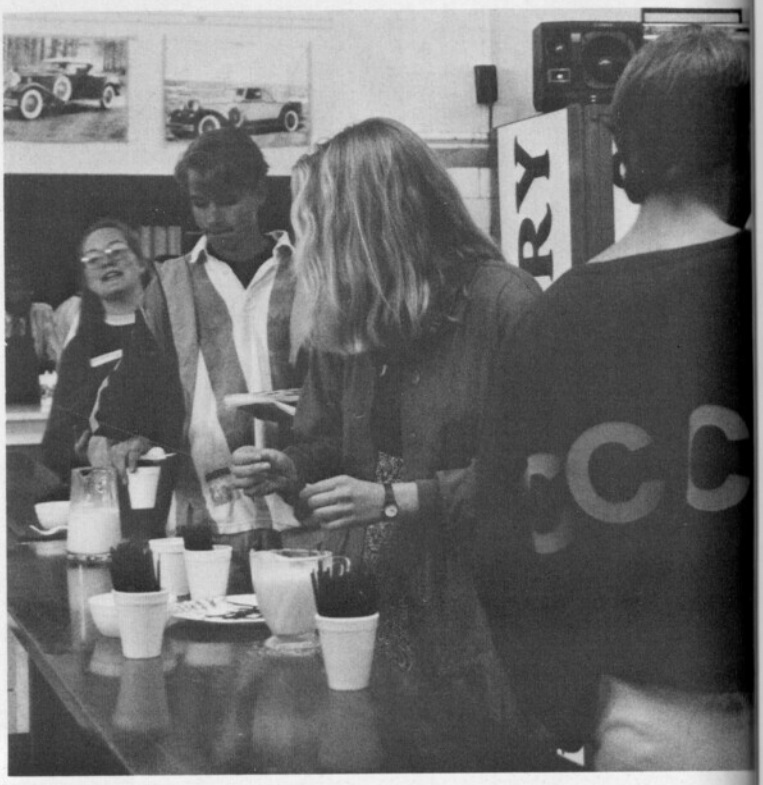
I'm sure you don't remember way back to October when we had our first and only dance. We had a great variety of students come out and show us their other personalities.We had Gypsies, A Flower and her lost Petal, a Flapper Gal and her Gangster, a Black Cat, a Nun, Three beautiful cops, an alive Disco boy in the 90's, clowns , and many other wonderful costumes that we just didn't have enough pages to put them all in this annual. So until next year when we look forward to seeing some new, and original costumes from students who aren't afraid to show who they really are, or what they are about to become.

Breakfast

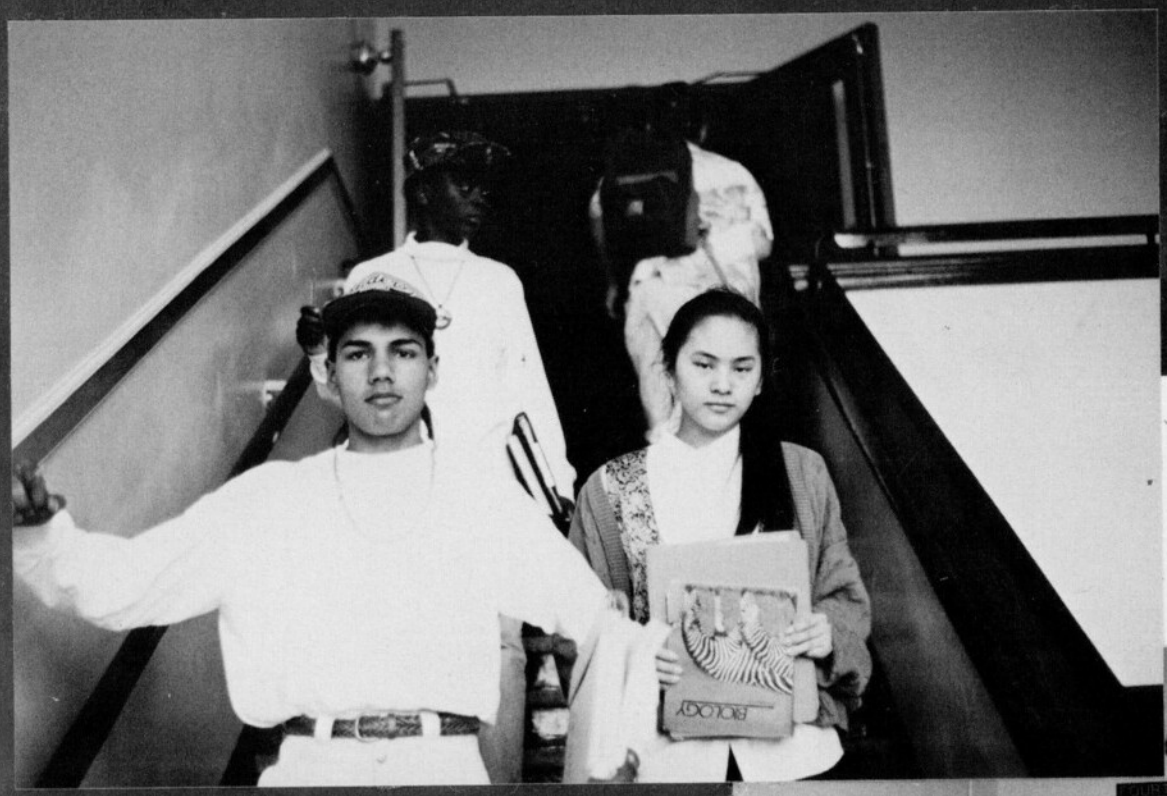
Cornerstone

Each year the Men in the I.E. department treat the school to a breakfast of pancakes. This year we find br Burgar living up to his name preparing the food for our consumption. Colin, below, eagerly eats his breakfast before class begins.

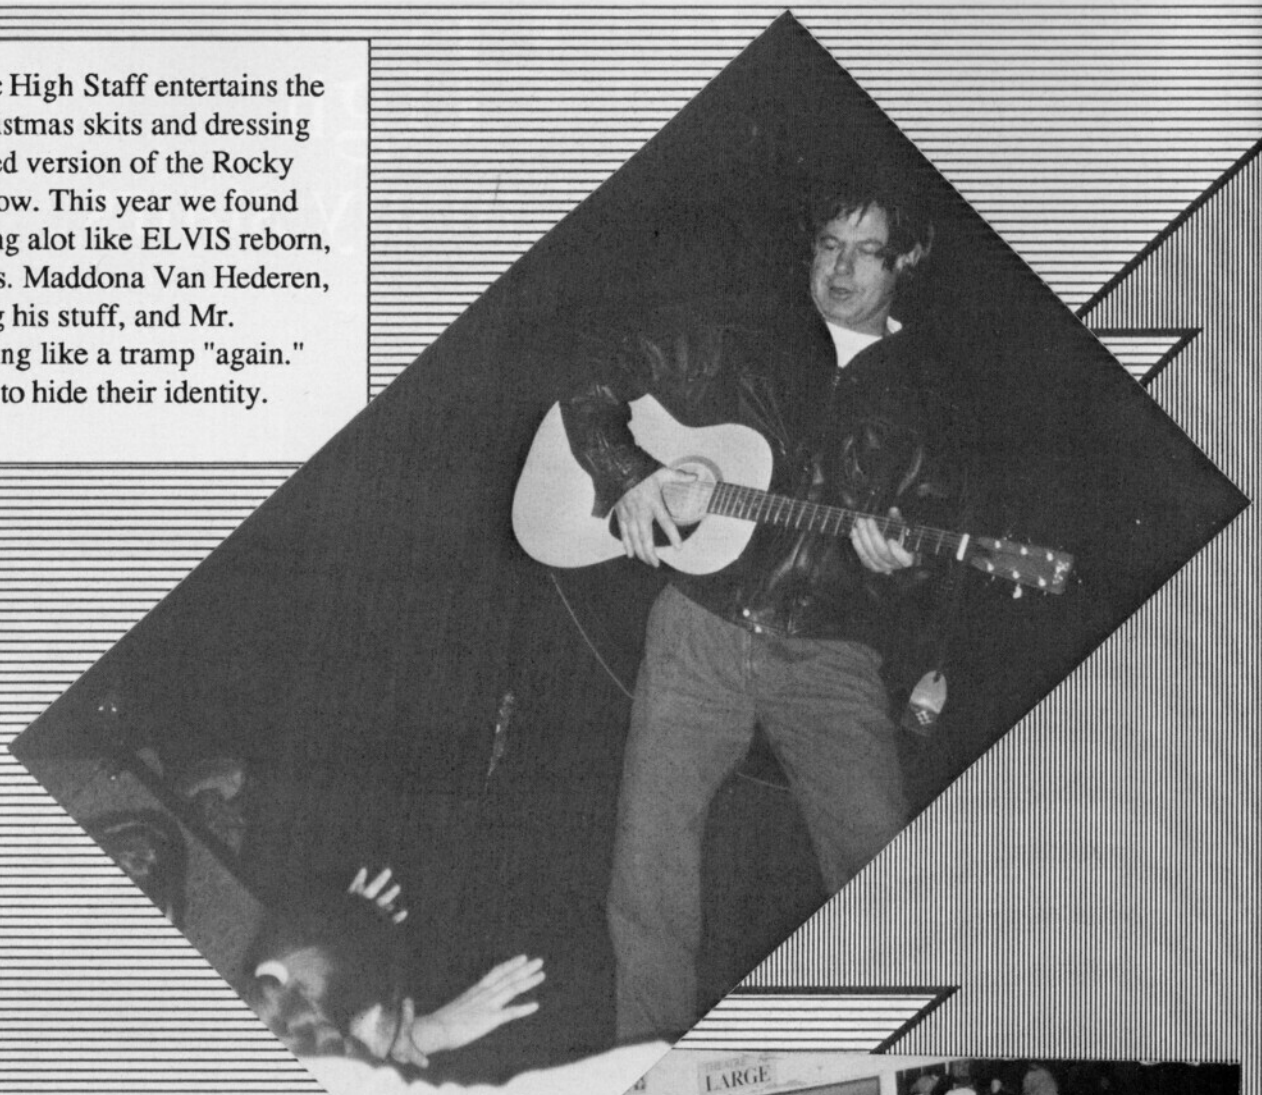




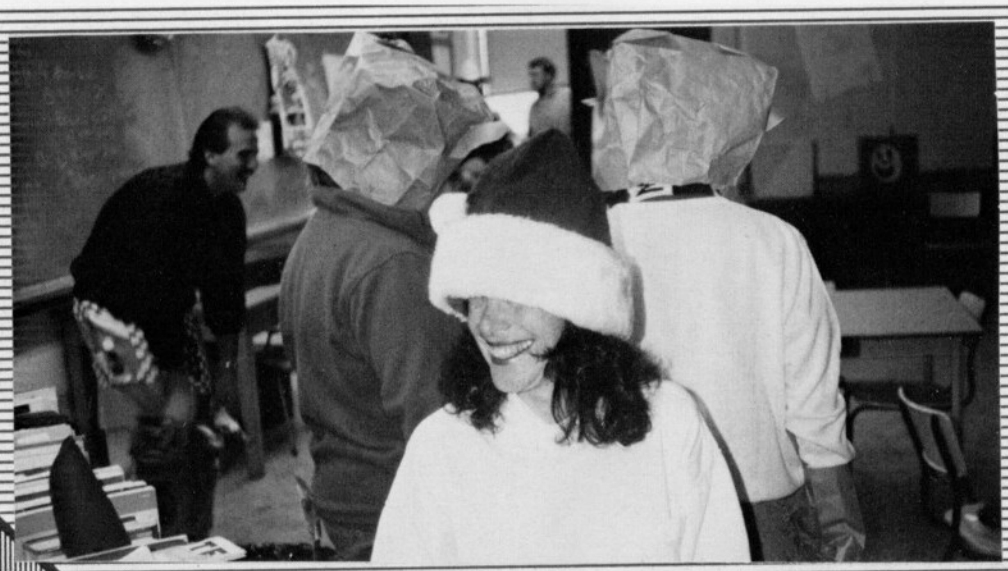
Vic High
School of many stairs

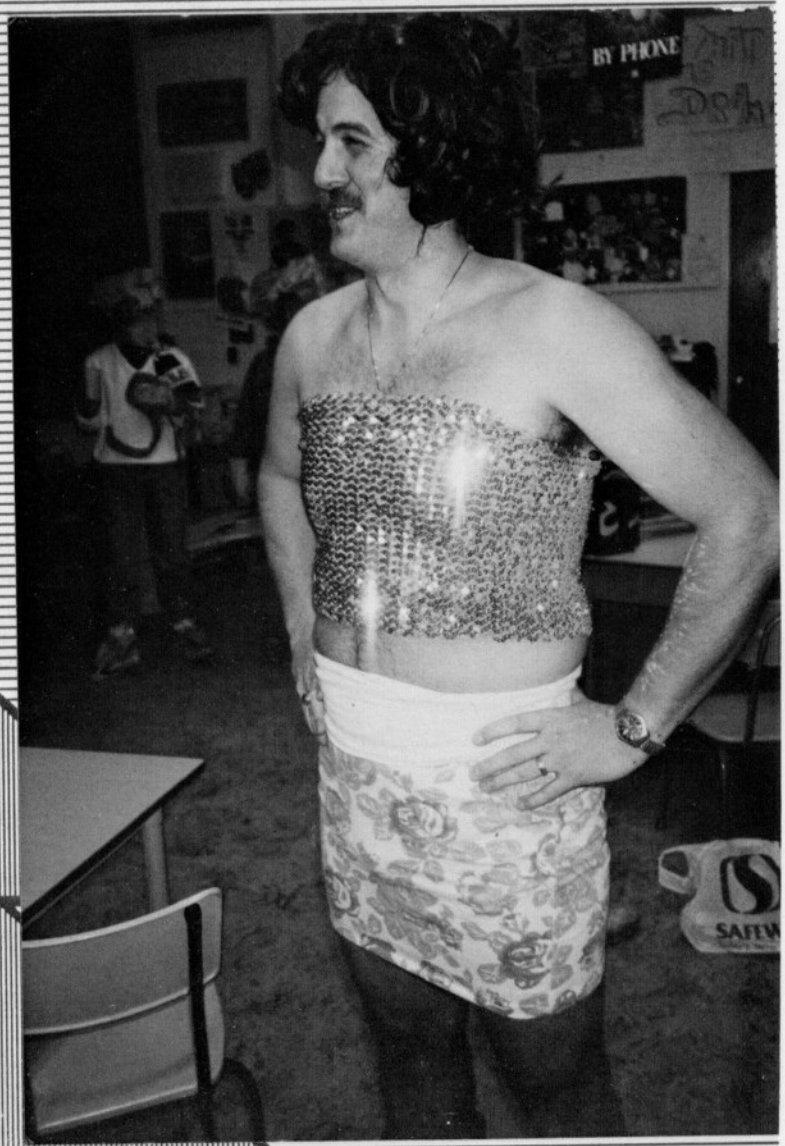


Each year the Vic High Staff entertains the students with christmas skits and dressing up like a revamped version of the Rocky Horror picture show. This year we found Mr. Denby looking alot like ELVIS reborn, we discovered Ms. Maddona Van Hederen, Mr Jung flaunting his stuff, and Mr. Christenson looking like a tramp "again." Other staff chose to hide their identity.



Christmas





Follies

Through out Vic High's halls you see many faces of different cultures. Vic High is know for its acceptances of "everyone", you are "free" to be "yourself" without having to worry about whether someone is commenting on your apperarance.

The faces of Vic High is why you come to school every day, you can see all the individuals unite into one school for a " Individual Free Eduacation Zone".

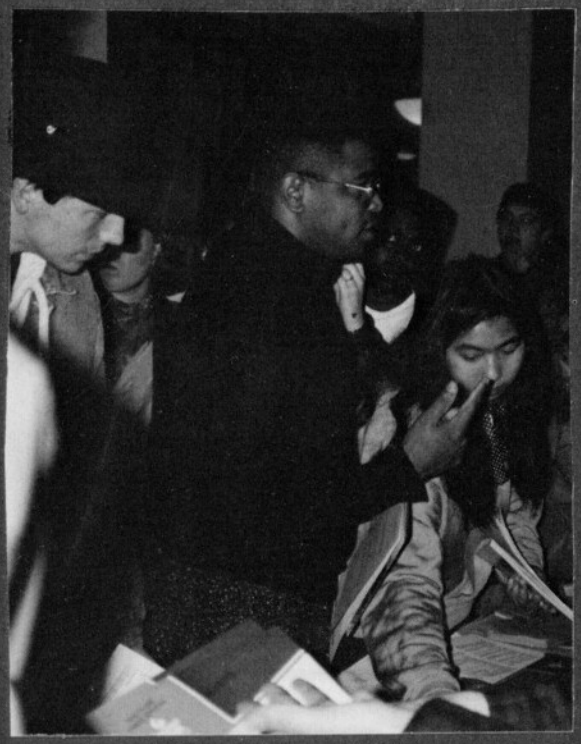
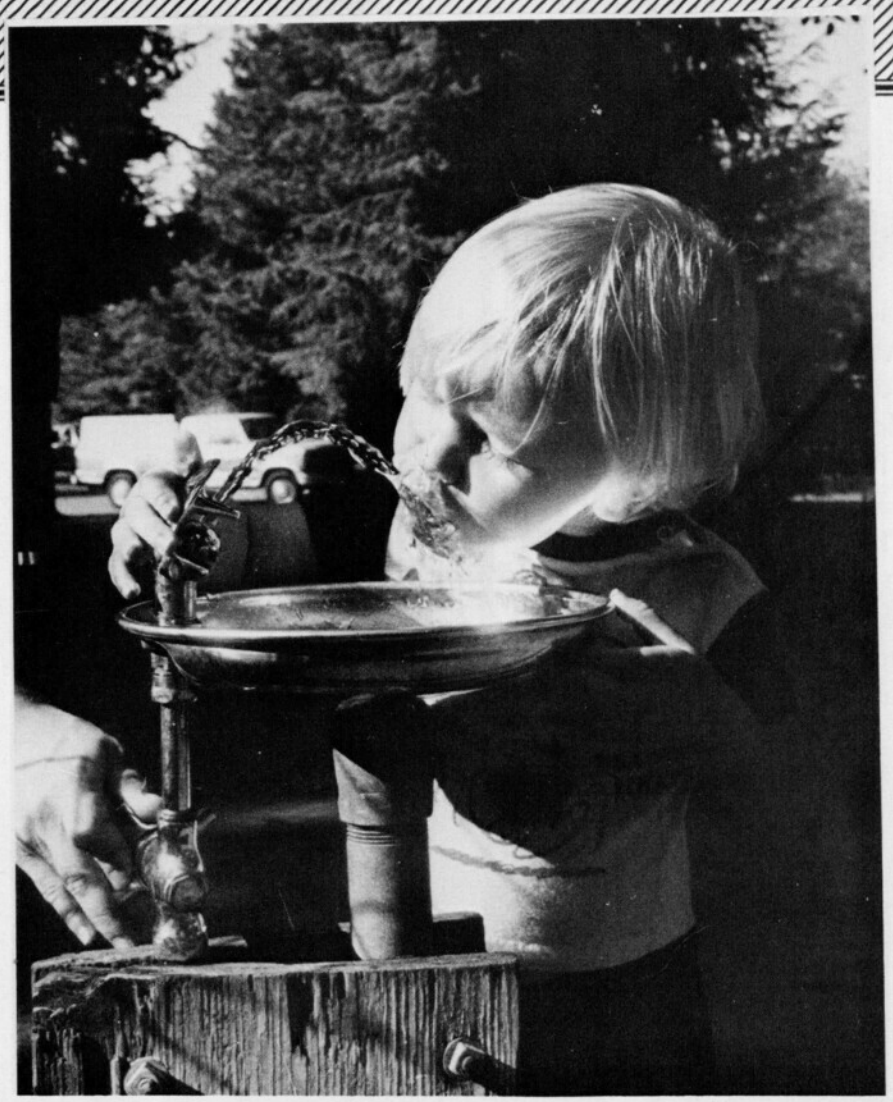
Post Secondary Day

In the middle of every year representitives from a Post secondary School from all over B. C come and explain to us the great importance of furthering our education in order to better our selves in the future.They tell us about their school in particular and what benefits it can give to us. It really makes the grade 11's and 12's think of their futures!



Parents' Support Group



Zachary

Zachary loves attention and leaning; he'll hang on every word I read to him. He sit's on my lap with a blanket, bottle and a teddy bear. He'll Listen in complete enjoyment, as he slowly drifts of into a deep slumber. He dreams of the stories we have read and of another day when we'll read together again.

Peer Helpers Team

"Students helping Students"

This year 47 Vic High students paricipated in the Peer Helpers Program. The program consists of 3 credit strands: Peer Counseling (11 and 12), Peer Toturing (11), and Leadership (12).

All students were required to complete their training at the University of Victoria summer peer counselling training centre or at Vic High through completing the course Interpersonal Communication Skills (ISC 11LD).

Throughout the year a number of school activities and community projects were planned, organized, and managed by this group. Projects and activities inclued orientation and tours for new students,Career and Health Fairs, Post elementary and peer tutoring, Central's literacy program, Victoria Marathon, Heart Foundatoin, Multicultural Day, Visitation to Junior Secondary Schools, Interest area speakers, and tours of the university.

The Peer Helping Program has grown both in the number of students electing to take these courses and the number of projects and activites designed to assist Victoria High School's students, With the continued help of Mrs. Neumann and the other fine teachers associated with the program, the Vic High peer helpers should continue to expand and improve.

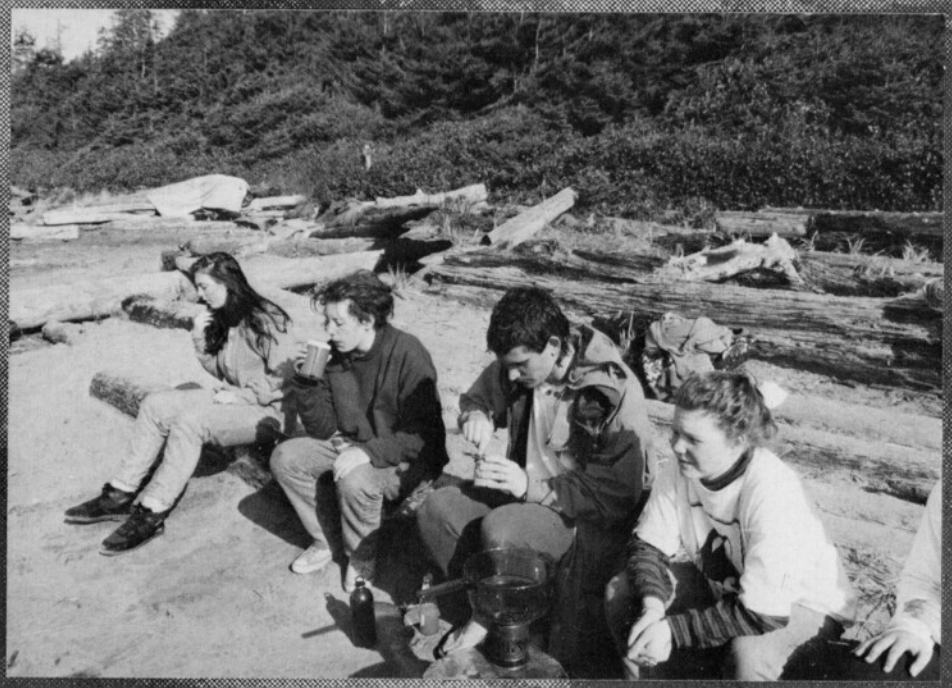
Caving

One of the many activities the outdoor club undertook was splunking. The group could be found all over the Island entering caves called Twighlight Magic, Riverbend, Andre's Annex, and Hobbit Hole. In the pictures we find Max creeping through Initiation Tunnel, and the group inspecting the stalagmites in Hobbit hole.

Surfing: Long Beach



When the Party's Over

Every year, Jackie holds auditions at the begining of school for anyone interested in acting and who believe in the Counter Attack theme. Many show up but only 1 1 elite students are selected. The group then writes, directs and performs in an original and entertaining play about the dangers of drinking and driving. The play is performed at the yearly Excel conference then is toured around the schools in Victoria and even Vancouver.

Coast Salish Carved Door Ceremony

Yes, it finally happened after two years of planning and the work of many. Busy, busy, busy and much work, but the labours and efforts of many people was finally realized in a momentous ceremony at Victoria High school on November 21, 1991. The masterfully carved Coast Salish doors done by Floyd Joseph are a gift for all to see and appreciate. The experience for mae was both learning and enriching. I would like to personally thank all my collegues, Paul Thomas, Deborah May, Nella Nelson and the staff and students of Victoria High for all their efforts in creating an experience all could share.

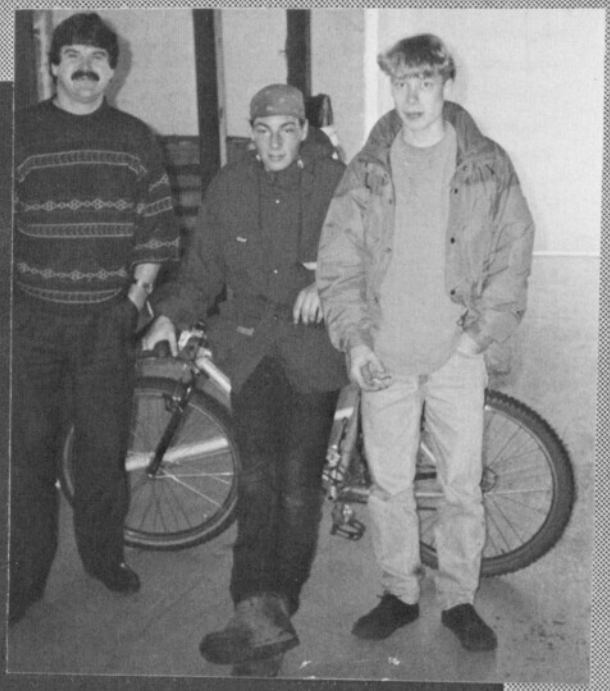
Business Club

This is the second year of this team at Vic High. Last year the team managed to lose about $ Seven Million. This year the team ran the " business " a bit more successfully, averaging profits of $ One Million. The team won the regular season play (70 teams competing) becoming one of twelve teams in the semi finals. the team is currently in the finals being played in Vancouver in May.

Pre-Employment Program



This year in PEP Program we have learned many a thing, such as the meaning of life's equation: 1+1=2, or finally realizing the meaning of the term "on the edge of the cliff" from a Pender Island experience. All in all, the most important was teamwork, with this we will reach far in life. Whenever one of us started to fall the others would grab on. Being stuck in the classroom with the PEP students isn't only pleasant, it's fun. A statement to some of you seniors:
" PEP isn't just a classroom, it's a life experience". See you folks next year and don't forget to bring your knowledge and immaturity.

The Band program this year was one of few students. However, the sound they produced was F-A-T, FAT!!! One could walk by the bandroom at lunch and hear them soulfully rendering a heartfelt version of "Takin' Care Of Business", as well as other classics from the good ol' days. Under the steady hand of Eric "Blues Boy" Emde,(no relation to Artie"Blues Boy" White) the Band progressed at an incredible pace, almost impossible for mere humans. Watch for them in the future. They rock.

JOURNALISM
Organised Chaos and Incompetence.

As you walk down the halls of Victoria High, you might happen to notice a select few, with hair falling out of their heads, running around frantically looking for stories and pictures. As you read this particular publication that is resting uncomfortably upon your lap, keep in mind that the mistakes made in this collection of riff-raff and unwanted social dribble are completely the fault of the ever fallible and grammatically incorrect Journalism Class. To put it bluntly, we are a group of the most inept and unproductive students these hallowed halls have ever encountered. The pace of the Zygote journalism juggernaut is unmeasureable by today's standards. It's not that the speed is too great to fathom, it's the fact that speedometer readings do not read in negative numbers. We incapable few have the overbearing responsibility of bringing to you the school's newspaper, the Zygote. You most likely do not recall anything of that sort, for they were all drab, colourless, and boring beyond the scope of an accountant's working day. It would seem to most that we, as self-proclaimed elitist's, are in control of every single thing that we throw at you, but that is hardly the case. The shuffling of paper, and the constant rap of typewriters and chewed fingernails drive out any resemblance to productivity. Instead of a work of art falling into your hands every month without fail, a haphazard piece of unadulterated trash slaps you in the face about once every three months (if we get around to it.) This astounding work ethic is unmatched anywhere in our fine education system, and so it shouldn't. If any professional newspaper followed our example, society would be thrust into another dark age. From the look of things, a few locally known papers seem to following in our lead.

The parental product of a purgatory press seems to be floundering in a sea of mediocrity. The only constant in this class is the guarantee of missing deadlines. We here in the pit of journalistic blunder seem to be able to fall short of expectations at every possible opportunity. We are the epitome of unreliability. Just ask our teachers, Mr. Jung and Mr. Twohig for conformation of our incompetence. We only hope that next year, the fresh Journalism students will take over with confidence, zeal, and enthusiasm. It would be nice to have a few literate students among the so called eyes and ears of the reputable school press next year. It's about time we relived the ancient glory of our foremothers/fathers who brought to you the genius of the first year Zygote. We, the Journalism class of 1991-92 have failed miserably to produce a socially acceptable reflection of the absolute unbounded joy of high school life. For this we solemnly apologise, forgive us.

Art Life

When one is faced with the task of putting down on paper the achievements of the art department, it soon becomes obvious of what a monstrous task that really is. How is it possible to put the expressions and emotions conveyed by the artwork created here into words? It isn't possible. They say that a picture is worth a thousand words. Therefore I have decided to let the work speak for itself. It needs no introduction.

THERE'S NO KNOWING FEAR

I am a symbolist.
I walk through this, dying or living,
On my knees, Brain shaking with fear.
Through the coals,
Around the bolts
That tear the ground,
Into holes where others fall.
All this I know - nothing to fear.
I speak to these dangers in tongues-
I accept their motives,
And feel no blisters, burns, bruises.
I cannot fear what I know.
And when I move from Knowledge
And its laquer - slick raincoat,
I know these pains and forget.
Then I fall between fires and black powder
And the worlds might re-create themselves,
And do;
While I kneel in the pit, on the fire,
Without knowing.
Barely knowing.
Nothing.

A CUT ABOVE THE REST

You smile as though nothing has hapened.
Your eyes glare past me without recognition.
Why don't you speak to me?
Why the sudden loss of... love?
I'm tangled with my guts, you're very far and distant.
They're wrapping me with a pain,
Covering me with memories of you and me.
Together and now... apart.

I begin at the top with your head.
I drive a knife downwards,
You stare back unalarmed.
I slice you in two,
Screaming my hatred in thrusts.
You lie lifelessly on the floor now,
Teeth grinning still.
Your picture is destroyed,

and now I want the real thing...

Inside Out

The ghostly gray vapour clung to the skeletal remains of the wispy branches. A building intermittantly revealed itself in the slow motion of the sky. In here it is 1992, technicolour, rainbows. Out there it is the early 19th century. Dull, gray, colourless.

The room held a faint chill. The shivering form of a young girl clad only in a sleek fitting dress hovered over the dark room. The seance had started off slowly that night, with no one but Mrs. O'Hara believing anything would actually happen... until- the translucent figure of her lost daughter appeared before them. The shadowy form tried to speak, but the cryptic pull of other dimensions held her from their grasp. Her hands aging from the exposure fell, silent and fading...

HELLISH HACKS

A hapless hack hurts.
It hangs in midair,
Slowly, like a sloth in hot tar, unaware.
Descending, with it deathly demise
All standing below, expecting no surprise.
Waiting, and waiting, and waiting.
It lands precariously on a limb..
Dancing about, thrashing about
Then resting silently .

The hack is the cause of man's frustration.
Lift it a million feet,
And still in most man's eyes, be not but deadbeat.
Bring forth a hack and they will come,
Piranhas, swimming in a sea of red;
Full of the remains of hacking dead.

Victoria High #3

It was in 1985 that my brother graduated from Victoria High. I am often drawn to his picture in the hallway, his placid stare, and I wonder how he experienced this school. My mother came here too but her picture isn't there. The year she graduated from Vic High was the year that my brother was born. At the same time of year, as the child within began to show, she was told to stop coming to school,but she finished her studies at home. Somehow the photo of my brother represents both of their stories - individual yet interconnected, and I feel as though they have made a place for me here.

Fragrant Petals

The sweet fragrance met me at the front door and filled my nostrils as I stepped into the room. The sight struck a note of wonder as well as a little disappointment at the realization that the orange before me had already bloomed and passed its prime. The petals lay like a cast off skirt resting at its feet, encircling the pot. The plant had bloomed unseen by human eyes, unable to complete its full cycle of fruit with the lack of insects present in the livingroom. I would have to watch the petals wither now, as they turned brown and crisp, decaying. For awhile though, I can enjoy the pungent fragrance.

Wanting, Wondering, Waiting

Limitless possibilities surround me,
Life is reaching a new plateau of development.
Future's are shrouded
By the growth of problems.
Time will only tell,
How I will fare as I go forward,
Entering adulthood, manhood, marriage.
I feel like a mouse caught in a box
With only one way out.
Endless directions with one exit.
Trapped in limitless possibilities,
Worrying, wanting answers
To questions that do not yet exist.
Performing menial tasks,
In order to find what I like.
Finding, and not able to Survive in a happy existence,
Void of worries.
Retire soon after.
Death, then
Heaven?
Hell?
Now have a happy grad,
Think of freedom, happiness
Don't dwell on anything bad.

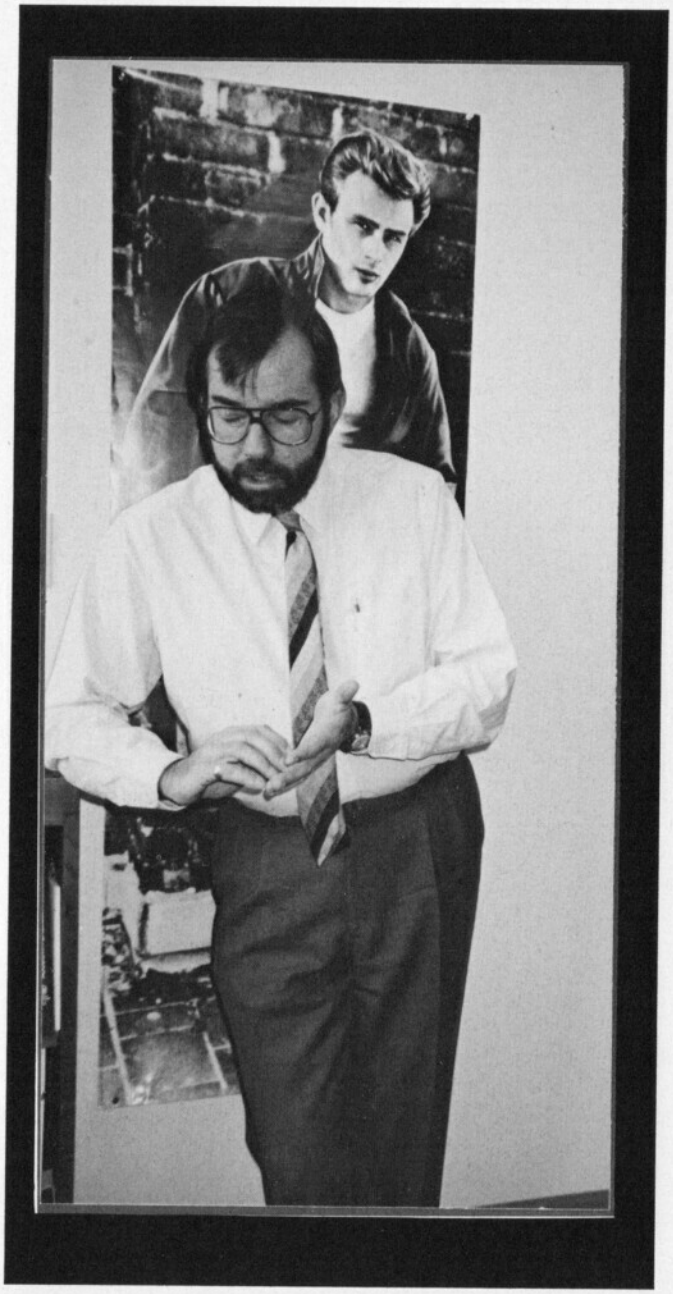
Principal's Message

The school year, as always, has been completed far too quickly. As I look back the months are a blur of activity and excitement. Vic High truly was a special place to learn, to teach, to listen, and to discover.

My congatulations to Mr. Jung, Mr. Twohig, and the staff who spent incredible hours, and time producing this fine annual. Your collective efforts are appreciated by all of us.

Those of you graduating face a daunting future, and this year has been packed with negatives; lay-offs, business failures, the potential splitting of our nation, ozone depletion in the atmosphere and the AIDS epidemic are but a few that could send us all into despondency and despair.



The strongest, clearest message of your success as learners will be that we are ready to deal with theese and other problems. You can think, know how to apply knowledge and skills through work, and there is not the slighest doubt that we can deal successfully with the challenges that face us.

It has been a pleasure to work with a talented, dedicated, and critical student body this year. Vic High has provided you with much and it is when you begin to repay the school and those who have supported you every step pf the way that the greater society will benefit exponentially.

It is and honour to be your principal beacuse you are all very special.

And Now: A Few Words From Smurf

This has been another outstanding year for Vic. High. Our teams have again done well, Provincial Exam results are among the best in the District, our Acting classes have become well known throughout the province, the Pathfinders Lab. has provided academic assistance to over 100 students on a regular basis, the "Great Expectations" pilot project provided couselling/academic support for 30 students, and all that remains is for our Graduating Class to enjoy their final formal evening of ceremony, reception, and dance.

My best wishes to our Grads. May each of you take away fond memories of Vic. high, use the skills and knowledge you've acquired to lead meaningful and productive lives, and remember that learning is a life-long pursuit.

My best wishes also to the teachers who have experienced the upheaval, stress, and uncertainty associated with the District's budget cutbacks. I encourage you not to give up, but rather to continue in teaching. It is a challenging, exciting, and rewarding profession. These are difficult times and they can only get better. When they do, I know there will be a demand for the quality you offer the profession.

My thanks to all the students, teachers, support staff, and especially to Mr. McCallion for continuing to make being the Vice Principal at Vic. High an enjoyable and rewarding career.

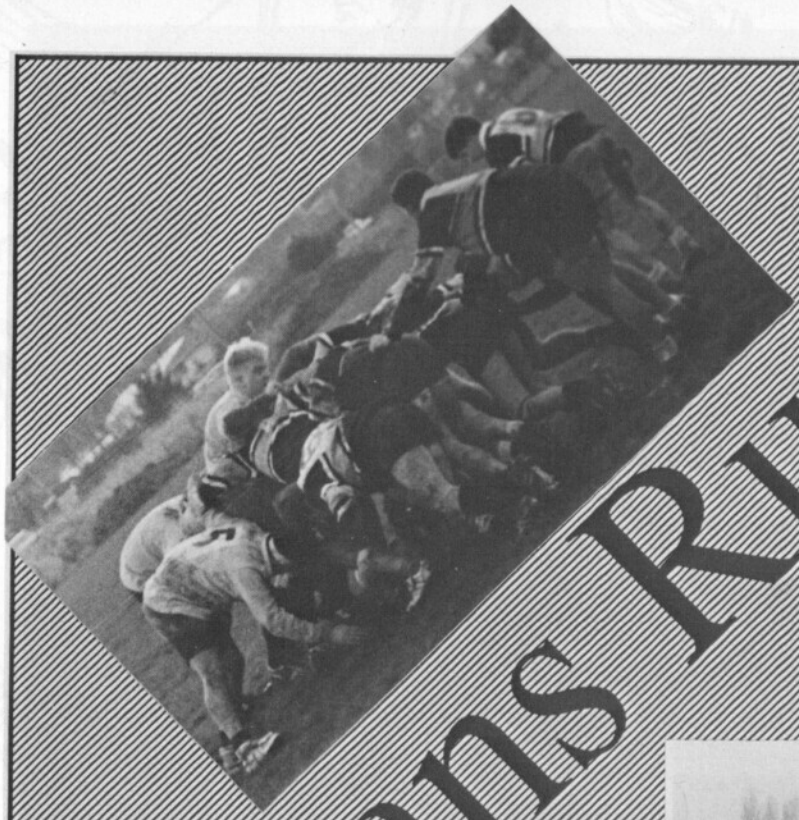
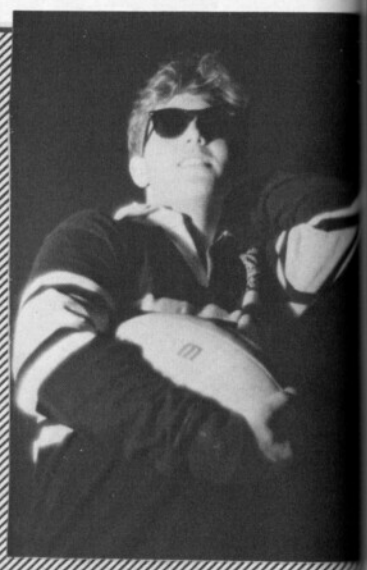
Titans Rugby





Vic High has had a tradition of excellent rugby teams. Throughout the year the Titans have terrorized local opponents with there strong play. To the left is a picture of one of those great teams from yesteryear. The Titans this year certainly continued in this excellent tradition.

Upper Left: The forwards go into the scrum; Top Right: "A star is born;" Middle left: John Hastings and Rama Tello make a punishing tackle on an apposing player; above: Kevin, and Ryan support James as he wins a line out; below: The team takes a break at half.

Middle: Steve Davidson runs with the Ball while Paul kelleher waits for the pass

Below: Vic High forwards wait for the ball to be thrown in on the line-out

Top right: Kevin and Richard "ruck over'

Middle; Vic High forwards chase the loose ball.

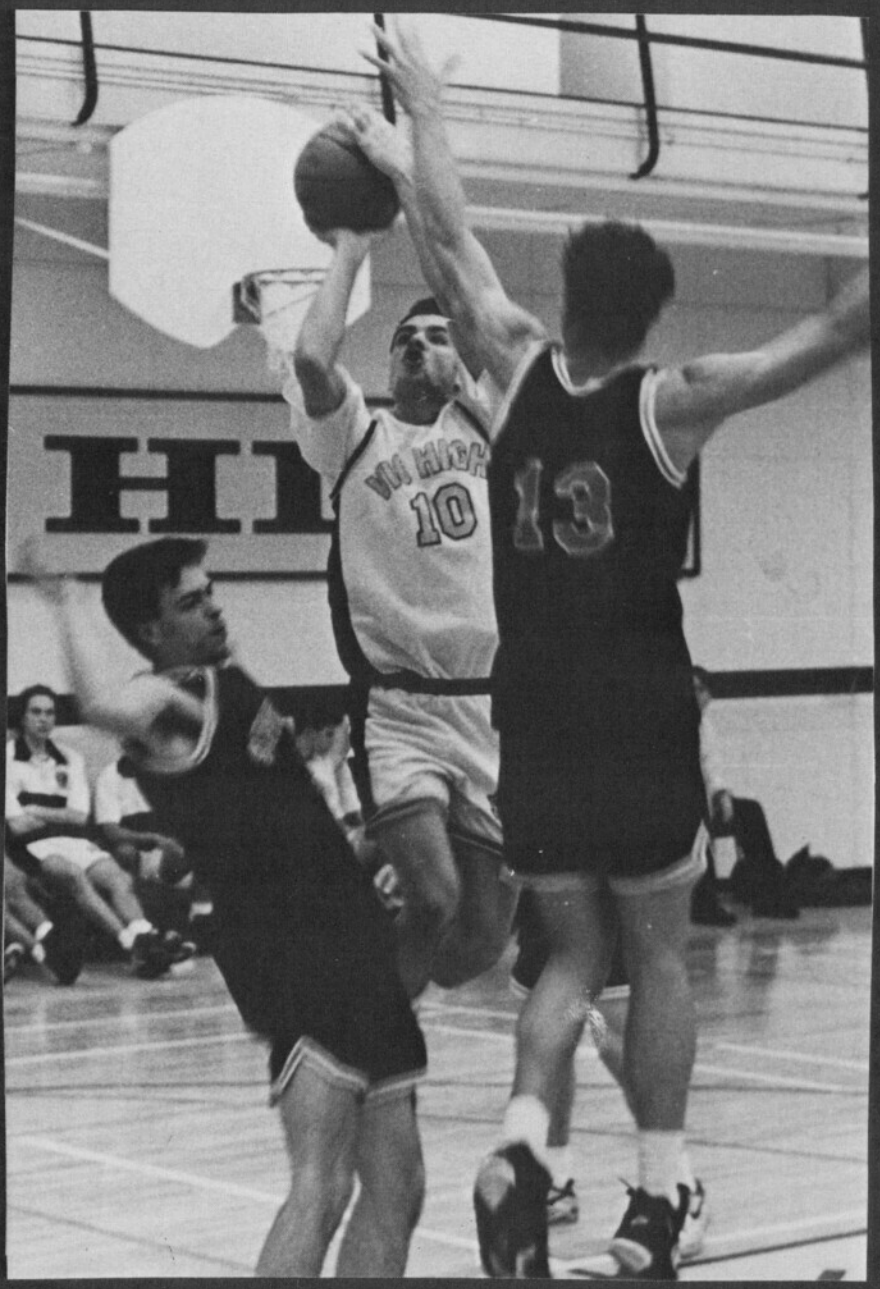
TotemS



This year was a real roller coaster ride for the Totems. The team had great expectations for this year; unfortuntely, we did not fullfill all those expectations. The Totoms competed in six Tournaments this season, and although we did not win any of the tournaments, we were very competitive and always placed well. The team travelled to Vancouver, Courteney, Reynolds, St. Mikes, Parklands, and of course we hosted the Contennial Tournament.

The team did not fair well in that in league play. Although we lost most of our games, we lost six games by five points or less. All six of the games could have gone either way. The team finished seventh and played Parklands in the first playoff game. It was a do or die game, with the winner going to the city finals. The playoff game was great, neither team led by morethan three points during the whole game. The Totems came out on the short end losing 47-46. We will be losing eight grads this year. We would like to thank; Kali, Kareem, David, and Gabe for three great years and Sam, Hai, Andy, and Jason for two grat years.

A special thank-you to Walt Christianson for coaching the Totems!

"Bowling"

You probably laughed when you heard that Vic High had a Bowling Team. Well to the few individuals involved with the team it was no joke! They had a lot of fun and won an uncertain amount of money to help with their Scholarship Fund.The team had about nine players all together, and hope that next year more people will catch onto such a wonderful sport!

Tomahawks

The girls field hockey team was definately different than those of previous years. The team was composed of two types of players; those who have played before and those who have never played before.The team combined with this two charicteristics made it something that no player will ever forget.although the team didn't do to well in the standings,we had a lot of fun,lots of enthusiasm,and great school spirit! To the grade twelves good luck in the future;and to the team next year,have fun!

BOYS SOCCER

The 1991-2 socccer season proved to be one of the most competitive seasons in memory. For the first time in years,the Tyees were comprimised of the sixteen very good soccer players who could play a variety of positions. The loss of the goal-tender Sam Dunn-definately didn't help the outcome of the games he had to miss out on.

All in all it was an exciting and fun year. Mr. Denby and myself really enjoyed this group of students on a personal level as well as a coach-player relatioship.

Well Done Team!

Bottom Left: Robin, Robyn, Shaleigh, Josie, Hannah, Paula,Elissa, Tanya

The Tiet's soccer season started out with about 25 eager girls, but dropped to 16 girls who always came out and put all their efforts, time and energy into playing a good game of soccer. the games were usually clean except for the first one against Stelly's, which was more like a rugby game. However the Tiet's kept their calm, and tried to play without killing themselves in the process.

We want to thank our coach Kieth , for putting up with our attitudes, and Ms. Blackstock for being our teacher sponsor.

This year we are losing a few grade 12's who we'd like to thank: Melissa D,Hala-Lea N, Hannah F, Paula C, and Elissa S.

TIGERS

The Vic High Tigers, Coached by Ms. Blackstock, Made an enourmous amount of progress throughout the course of thier season.The team practised a lot and grew as a team,how ever no, they did not become Island Champions or anything as glorious as that but have got to be given credit for thier intense determination and thier ability to enjoy themselves even in the face of defeat.The eager team was invited to Port Alberni tournament where Angie Croucher made the All-star team. Over all the girls had a fun season which helped them to improve their skills as well as to grow as a team.

Special thanks to 'Ms B.' who by now ,I'm sure, perfected the art of wraping ankles.

Badminton Team

Once again the Vic High Thunderbirds did extremly well in league play this year, losing only one match (6 - 5) to Mount Doug and finshing second in the Lower Islands.

For the fifth time in seven years the Thunderbirds quali fived to complete in the B.C. Championship in Burmaby. Although we placed 14th out of 16, all the matches were very close, extremly exciting and a high standard of sportemanship was mantanid thoughout the tournament.

I would like to thank the team being such a good group and hope to see some of you back

Individual

not an object

The students at Vic high have tried to exemplify the ideal of excepting people for who they are. Whether it be culturally, style, or in terms of gender students have looked beyond media stereotypes. The staff of the camosun believed that this piece of art adapted from an origional by Stephanie Albion exemplified our view of human beings

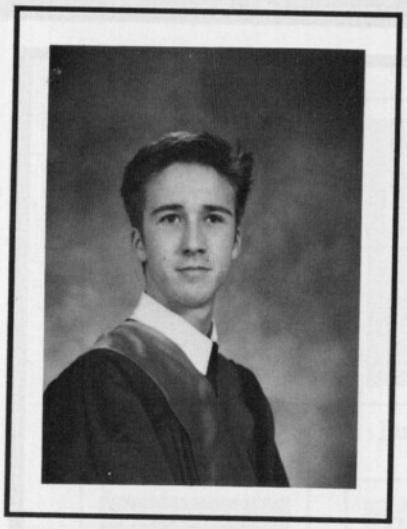
Congratulations

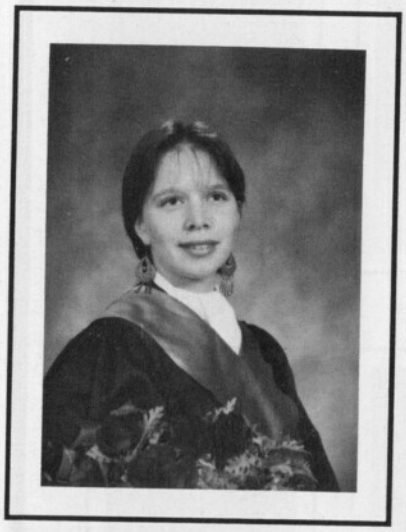
to the

Graduates of 1992



Scott Aitchison

As a master in krupology, I can truly say it's been a good 12 years. To P.B., M.C., and the grade12 gang, I say keep in touch. To A.R., S.H., D.B., D.E., and all the lifers in the third floor math wing, I say have fun next year and don't buy a British car. I'll miss all of the teachers but I don't think I will lose sleep over my sorrow. See you in the future, oh and I want to be rich and drive a Tiger.



Cynthia Andrew

The last 12 years have been fun, but now it's time to move on! For me I plan to spend the rest of my life with my husband Colin.And one day I plan on being rich, so my son can suck every last dime out of me.Hi Zachary!!! My last words are "Later to ya"!

Megan Allen

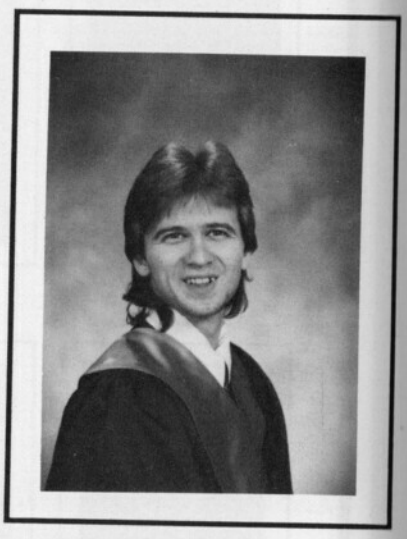
Ha! Where ya goun ya crowlin' Ferlie? Thanks Lise

Jennifer Andrews

It's been a great year. VP was fun and so were all you strange people who were here this year. Now I am free, I'm off to travel the world. Ha!

Jennifer Ambers

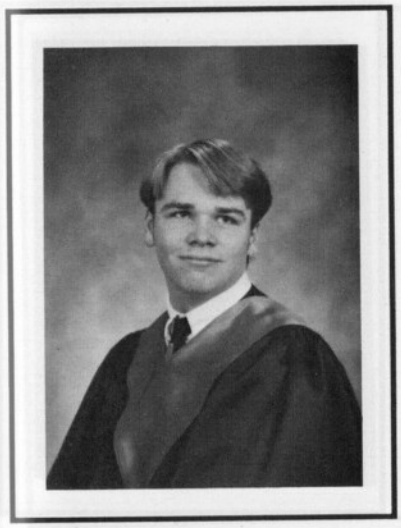
I'm finished! It's still unbelievable that I'm graduating. Thanks to everyone who helped me through the last two years, especially Lezley!



James Atess

Sandra Au

Sandra will be relieved that she never has to take those Social Studies classes again after graduating. Instead she will be very happy with the stress load that marketing will put on her.This business woman will be too busy think.



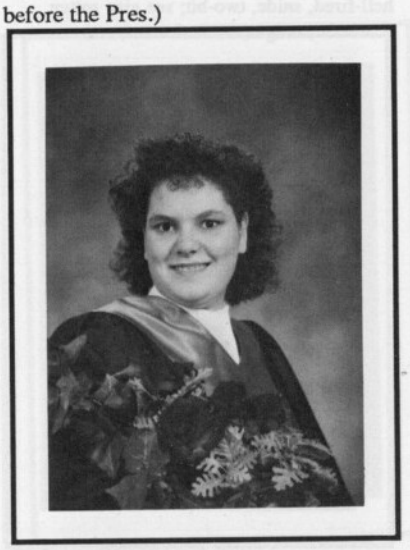
Wayne Barber

I was here for five months, later.
P.S. The name is Tommy Tom

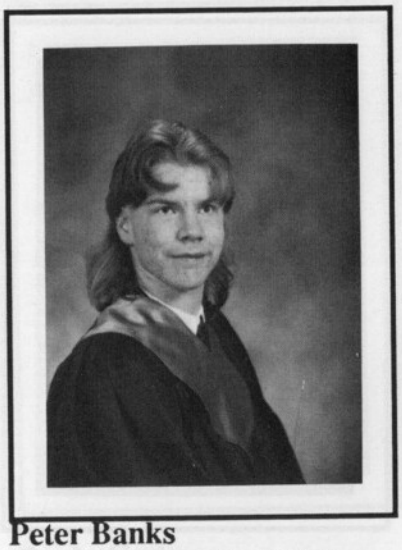
Stop playing those games
2 Legit 2 legit 2 quit

Jennifer Bain

I'd like to be remembered as the plain, sweet, quiet, innocent girl who isn't sexually frustrated and who would NEVER stick any foreign inanimate object up my nose, NOT! To all my friends whom I've terrorized; thanks for not taking revenge. A special warm thanks to Jackie, who gave me the confidence to be me.(All bow before the Pres.)

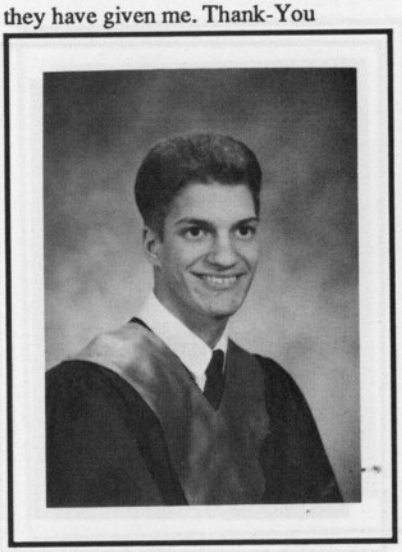


Angelina Beaudin

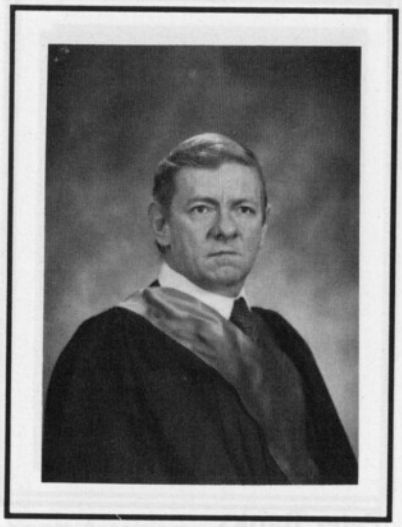


Peter Banks

To Mr Nesmith's delight, I'll be long gone bythe time people see this. Parting thoughts - thank you Mr Chester for showing that there is hope in the teaching profession. Best memories: Acting 11 [big thanks to Jackie and the mighty crew of 22], and hockey tourney of 91-92. Well my time is out, remember to party, and the Habs rule! I'll be I am now able to pursue a career of my choosing, and enhance the education they have given me. Thank-You



Pierre Beauvais



William Bergstrom

I feel privileged to have been a student at Vic High. The memories will be with me always. My sincerest appreciation to the teachers who have guided me through this learning experience .With their help I may now be able to pursue the career of my choosing, and enhance the education they have given me. Thank-You.

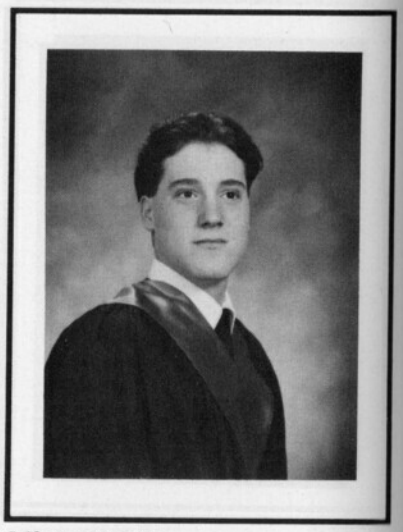
Stephanie J. Bouloghe

Stephanie is relieved to finally escape the conservative propaganda of the public school system. Fond memories of Java with the guys [109-122], Jeopardy with Sky, and luncheons at Kendra's. Luck to Mercedes 'n' t gang. See you at the O.T.!



Nick Blasko

Descending from Babylonia, the infamous rampaging Ruski Nicholas Blaskoveechie leaves us with fond memories. He has graced us with his hypothesis and theories based on his education at the ancient Beer Drinkers Guild in Babstown. Thanx to all fellow "ages". In the future, Nickolai postulates that he can be found on a mountain in his homeland, snowboarding and merrily chanting an ancient Hrundi

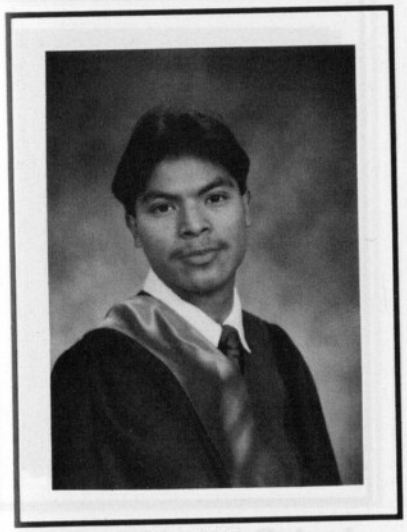
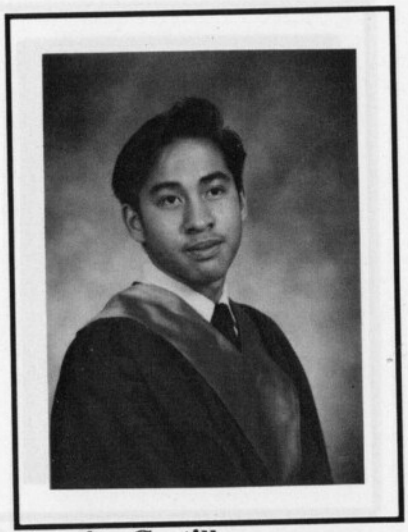
Paula Caskey

My favorite times at Vic High will be forever remembered. My favorites are: "the guys", Overtime waiters, bananas, and long live the two p's. [Penguins & Pigs] Thanks to Smurf, Hannah, Lisa, Hala, Karma, and Kerri, for making my last year one to remember, and of course my buddy Cole.



Medardo Castillanos



Juanito Castillo

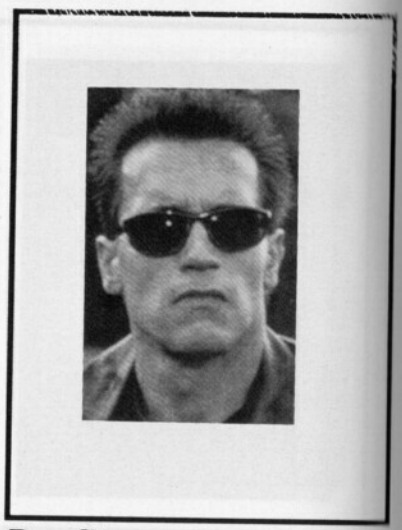
After years I guess I'm used to the concept of school. Now I often see the time slip between my fingers when I least expect it to. It's been good and I hope life will only get better. Lot's of luck to the grads of '92!

Andrea Chalmers

Debbie Chalmers

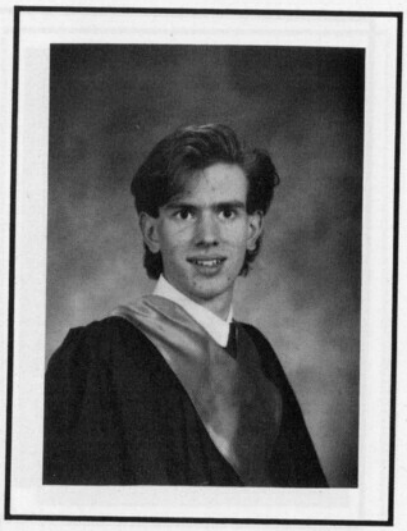
Karma Chenard

Well, Sa, La, La, Nah, En, Rain, we made it! My two years at Vic High were a lot of fun, especially Mr. Chesters Consumer Ed class. To my greatest buds Lisa and Hala, we must never forget each other. No me and Lisa are not twins. See ya guys later, from Me.



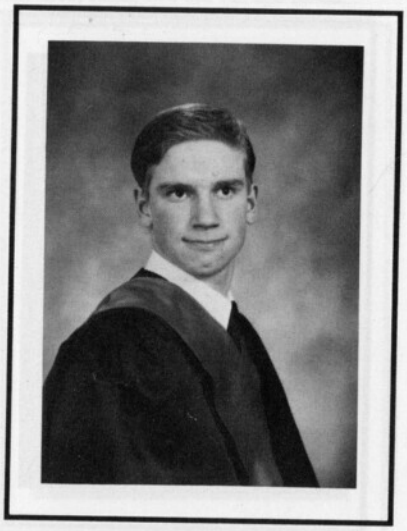
Ben Cherry

For an excellent cup of coffee every time, start with a clean coffee maker. Measure to suit your own taste preference. We suggest 1-2 level tablespoons to every 6 ounces of fresh cold water. To help preserve freshness, refrigerate in a sealed container after opening. Thanks to Mom and Dad.



Eric Clark

In these few short months before I liquify myself at Grad, I find myself contemplating the many rewards the education system has given me (Yeah, right). My future goal is to obtain a diploma from CompuCollege.



Jason Coates

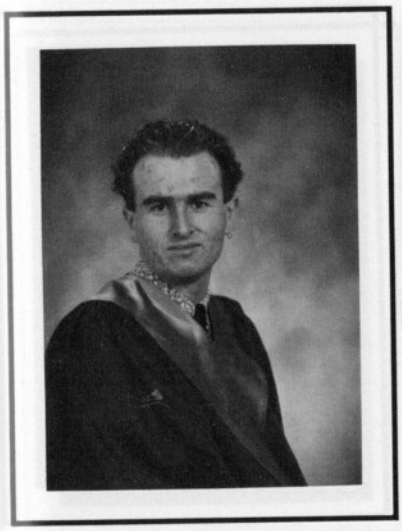
Melonie Daniels

Once upon a time there was a child who longed to be set free to dream, only to return to the nightmare. That child was Melonie Daniels. What is the nightmare in her dream? She dreamed herself being a teacher, and the best. Why? She is sweet, she is , understanding, and humorous. That is why she has the friends that she has. We will miss her, [even though she squeals when you tickle her.]



Brian Del Raye

Jessie Demers

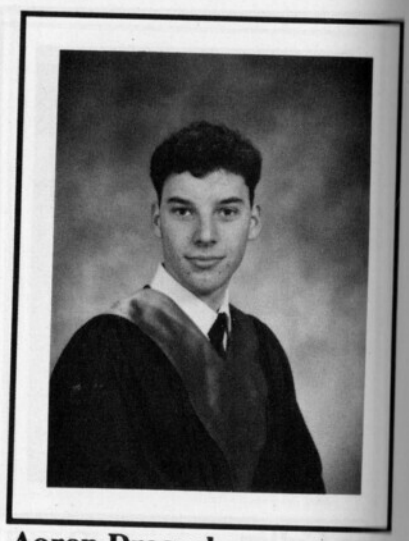
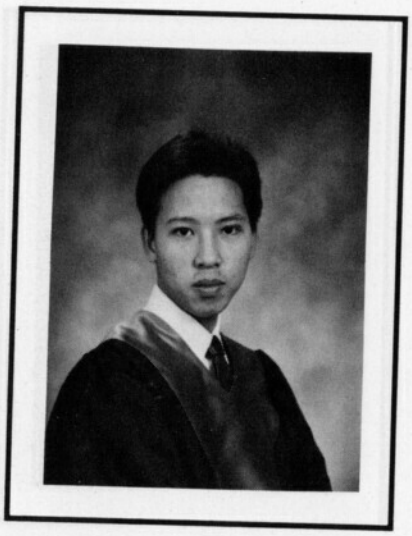
Allie Douglas

Allie will probably be remembered for her indescribably neat binders. She leaves us with these words of wisdom. " I dere's to making sure your toffee never goes soft, but if it does hang out the window." "He looked much older than twelve." And finally, "How about those Blue Jays?"



Aaron Dragushan

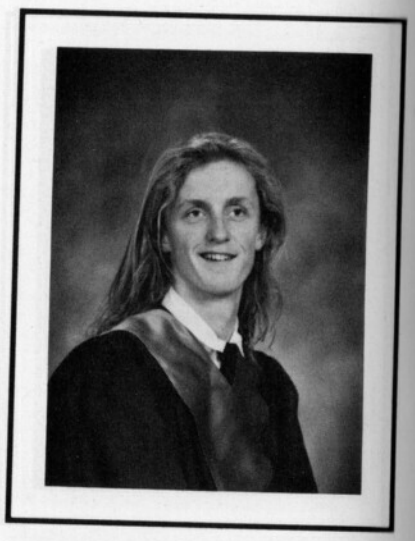
Aaron's most memorable moment is when he was a body-guard for the presidential elections. Slave day will not be forgotten either.
Fare thee well to: MOB, BS, JH, IH, JB, CT, JM, MD, RP, LR, AS, KK, and AN.



Peter Du

Melissa Dunn

Also known as Gibson, Mel spent her grad year in Student Council meetings and in court. She could be found running through the halls to meetings or in front of her locker with the rest of the gang. She'd like to say good-bye and good-luck to the gang and especially to all the grade elevens. (C.C., S.E., and Adam B.)

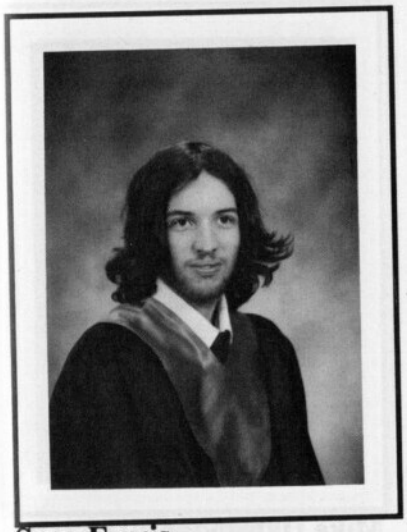


Sam Dunn

"Scanjecto" "Saj" "Long Haired Legend" After graduation and rehabilitation, this towering character wishes to return to his home land, England. There he plans to continue his life long quest for the perfect beverage. Whilst living the life of a rowdy, soccer crazed Brit, Sam also wishes to maintain close relations with all of the "ajes" back home. If all goes well, Sam Dunn could be the first human being to successfully prove the B.O.W.S. theory of relativity and Veechie prophecy.

Bobbi England

Bobbi likes to talk and spend her class time walking in the halls.Sometimes during class you may even find her in her class.Anyways she's done now so, Bye to, Lisa, Lisa, Megan, Tanya, Carmen, Celeste, Laura, Tash, Mel, and Sue and Leslie, the bobsy twins who I costantly see running through the halls.



Sean Ferris

Rhonda Evans

We finally made it. Thanks to my friends for all the support and tolerance of my grumpiness throughout the year. So,I finally did it- and that is recognition enough for me. May all our dreams and endeavors be more pleasant than the last years of study. Have a wonderful life - for we only have one. Yahoo Grad 1992!

Teresa Finley

Hannah Fener

I love you all, and don't ever change because you are all beautiful. I'd like to say good-bye to my best friend Paula, I hope your life is full of love and happiness. I am leaving you all. Remember me as the strange girl with long black hair.

Janelle Frobeen

Orange will be best remembered for her lunchtime torture! Janelle will always remember waking up in the same bed with Sonora and Dave C. at Chickens place. What fun times we had! To all the Hallway Gang, I love swimming in puddles. Janelles parting words: Are you dumber than D-U-M-M or are you just dumber than D-U-M-B !

Lisa Furtado

Lees will always be remembered for her attempts to change the world: Improving relations between communist, and non-communist nations, stopping the spread of nuclear weapons, and being a humanitarian diplomat in third world countries. Fond memories of winter days in the counselling area, doing paper work for the weary one. Hi; Wen, Scotty, Steve, Lash, Zit, Arrowhead, Tracers, P.S., and all my little followers.

Monica Gazzola

Monica is a sweet, loving character, who would never throw anyone in a puddle, except of course Janelle. According to Charlene, Monica is so wild nobody can keep up with her, especially Joe and Aaron. You can always see Monica walking around school carrying a box of Kleenex for a certain someone. Laurel is usually at her side snorting a laugh. Monica's parting words are: " Mr Jung, learn how to spell!"

Wendy Gardner

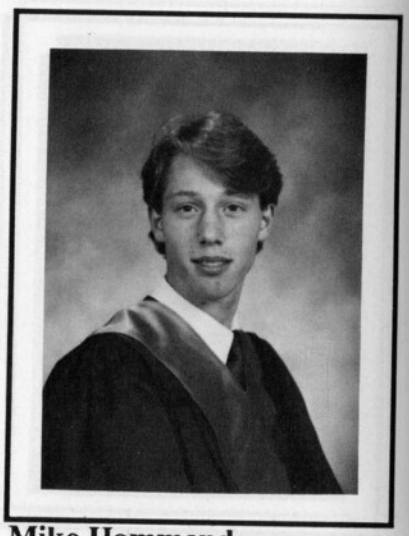
Wendy has spent much of the year looking for ways to leave this lovely continent. Although she has enjoyed getting a toe -hold on Vic-High, hairless backs presents more of a challenge. One piece of advice, if you see her in her jacket, beware if you yell. Da Beears!

Sonja Goldsmith

In all my years of school I have never felt so nervous.Out in the "real"world my life will not have the structured routine which I have become used to over the last 12 years.Of the many schools to which I have gone,Vic High will always be my favorite.

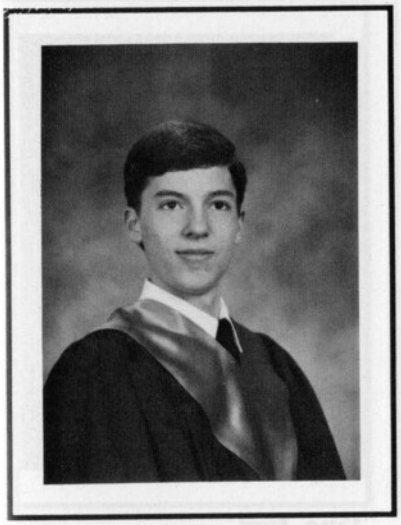
Liz Gazzola

Lizzy's most memorable moments at Vic High this year were: being thrown into the guys washroom and locked in there, not to mention someone being at a stall, and pushing her lunch, Angie, and Janette down the street in a shopping cart. Lizzy's parting words are: " Excuse me, but I am right!

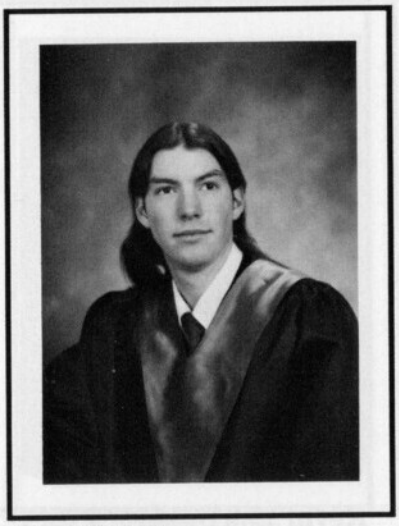


Mike Hammond

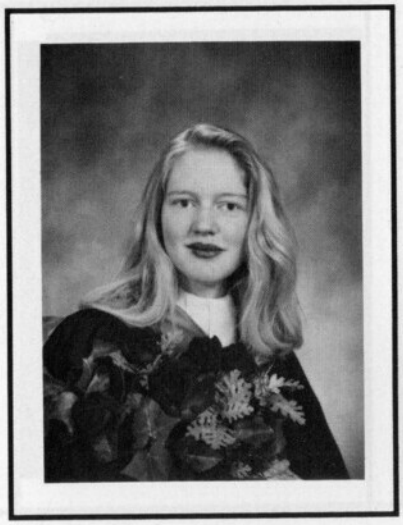
Mikey is a hardworking, concientious, considerate individual. You can always find Mike talking or thinking about a certian someone. Future plans are focused towards electronics and skiing. His favorite law is Murphy's law, his favorite rule is the Golden Rule and he loves Jesus, his mom, and his girlfriend too. Quote: "They stumble that run fast"



Fox Heide

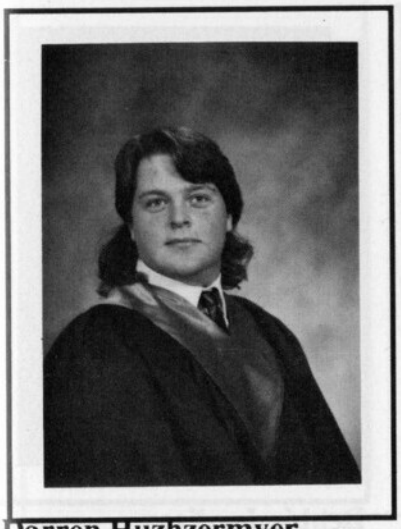


Carl Hohol



Rebecca Hollebone

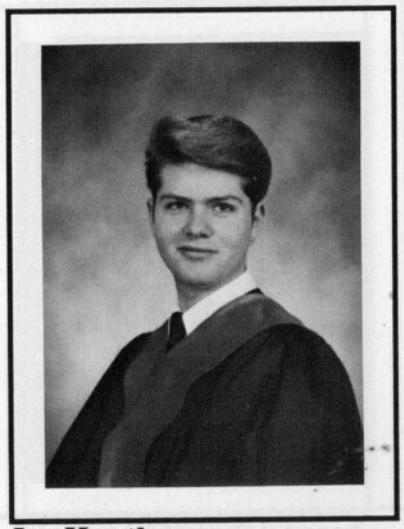
Don't ask! No! I'm not confused!
Wahoo! Yahoo! Whatever!
I haven't met my first opposite sex "friend" yet!
But that's okay. . . Deb?!?
Kirsten, you're ____
Deb, learn to drive!
Love ya everyone!
I'll be back everyone!
Help! I need help. .



Darren Huzhzermyer

Margaret Hugget

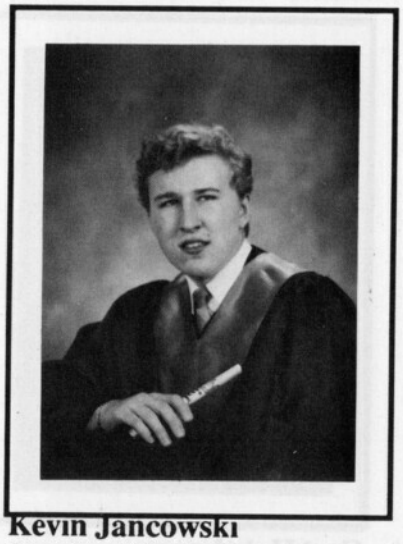
So finally the time has come and I'm outta here. It's about time! It has been nice bumming around with friends. With luck many friends will keep in contact. Trouble always seems to come my way as I walk out of class early.



Joe Huntley

Mr. Huntley will most be remembered for his luscious, bright smile. You can often see Joe wearing his gorgeous Boston Bruins hat. If you ask someone what they think of Joe they will probably tell you "Well he's a really nice guy but, man he has to sleep less and work more. Joe's parting words, "Where's the bed?"

Yen Huynh

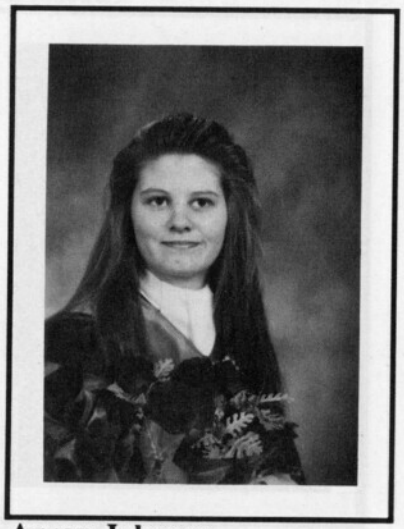


Kevin Jancowski

Even though Kevin tends not to express himself, he feels this occasion requries his input. Kevin has felt a wide variety of emotions through his two sessions of attending Victoria High School. He wishes that everything will find peace and happiness, particularly those in Vic High. God Bless Vic High!

Tina Jew

You will uasally see Tina with a camera stuck to her eyeball! She also hates to be known that way! You can be sure to find her flying like an eagle into a vast world she calls her own. The art room perhaps?!

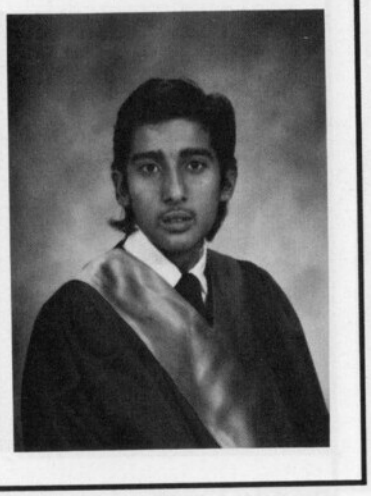


Arron Johnson

Rainy Johnston

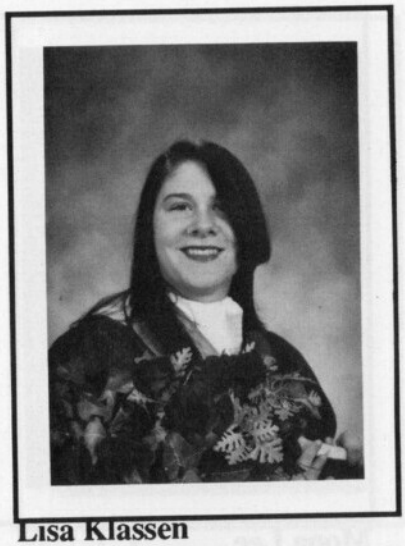
Debbie Jordison

Debbie will never forget breaking the wall in the Social Studies room. To B.H. I think I need a new clutch now. I'll always remember the skillful driving I.R. and I have shown to all our friends. Shiny Happy People Rule Forever! Right B.S.? Or is it PAT! To B.H. K.Y. B.L. I.R. J.B. and B.S.,



Robby Judge

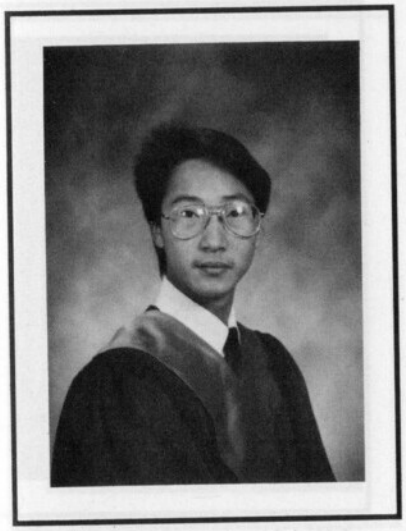
My future plans contain, a university diploma and a very successful life as a businessman. I enjoy sports and good luck Vic High and grad 92's.



Lisa Klassen

Hey, I'm from a planet of alien chickens. I;m Paddington, and I CRUSH YOU LIKE A BUG! Megan, I hope to see you in Spain, and to all my friends; when I write my first extremely gory, warped novel, I will dedicate it to you guys. Remember, I know Tall People, I know Very Tall People. Eat a piece of cheese, have a bowl of soup, it's O.K. !

Anita Ko



Henry Kwan

Kari Lang

Well it's hard to believe I've finally done it! I'm glad I stuck through all the years. It pays off in the end. Well I plan to spend the rest of my life with Glen Drew and doing whatever. Last words to Vic High: "It's finally over!"

Tracy Lavender

Rosalyn Le

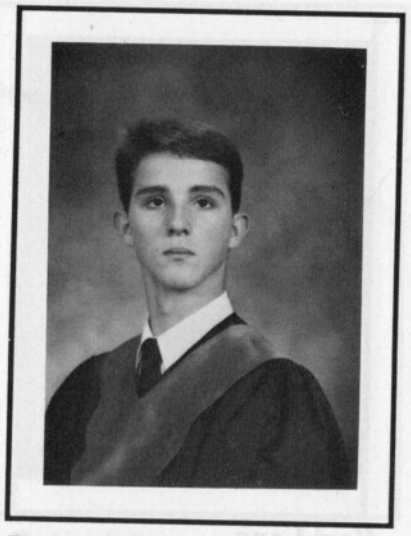
Mona Lee

School has given Mona over a decade of knowledge, opportunities, stress, friends, inspiration, and more stress. Mona will probably go on in life to discover the lost remains of civilization. Afterwards she'll return to show off her accomplishments to her teachers who were a big part of her life.

Brandy Leigh

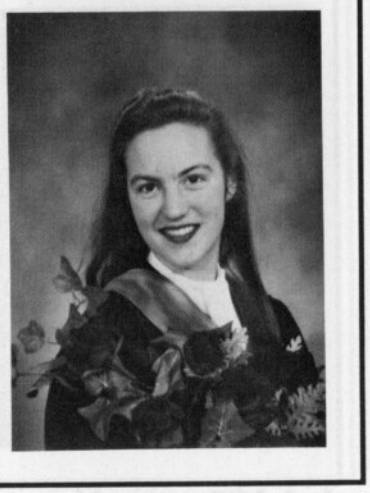
Brandy can be seen wandering the ailes of London Drugs trying on blue eye-shadow, listening to R.E.M. in the halls, or producing great works in the dark-room 3. She'd like to state that she smells more like Secret than Teen Spirit. Remember Brandy as your mother, Father, sister, brother, granma, or, kitty lover.

Sita Leveille



Paul Liggett

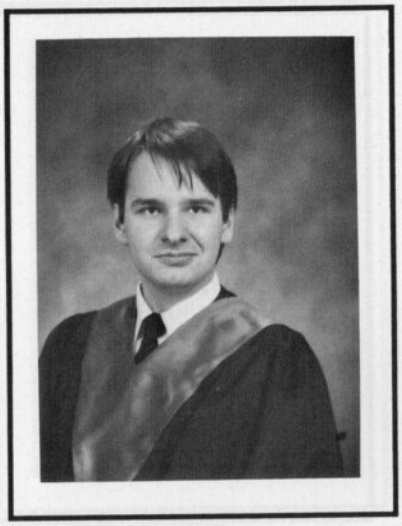
Allie Lo



Leslie Lomas

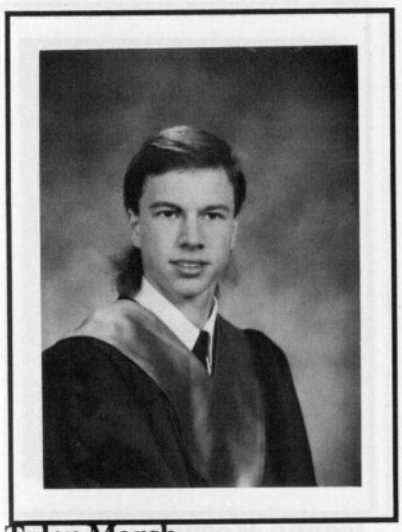
Hello Mes Amies!! Well, the end is here. I'd just like to state that I have had a GROOVEY time at Vic High,[Rah Rah Rah]. Thanks to all the little people, not! I love you guys- Tanya, James, Sue, Christine, Celeste! Remember: Bananas Forever! Later 'bater!

Sherrie Low

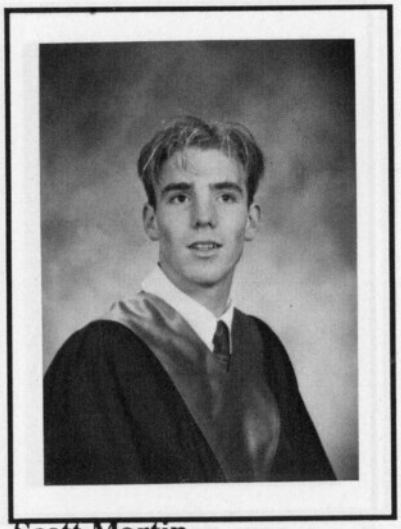


Martian Ludvik

The time has arrived. Graduation is upon us. I would like to thank all the teachers that have taught us throughout the years. It has been a great deal of work and fun.



Tyler Marsh

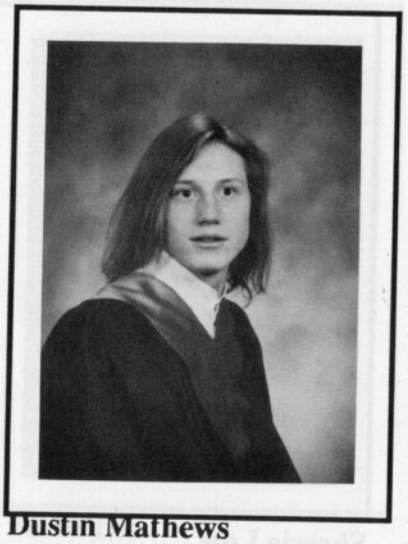


Scott Martin

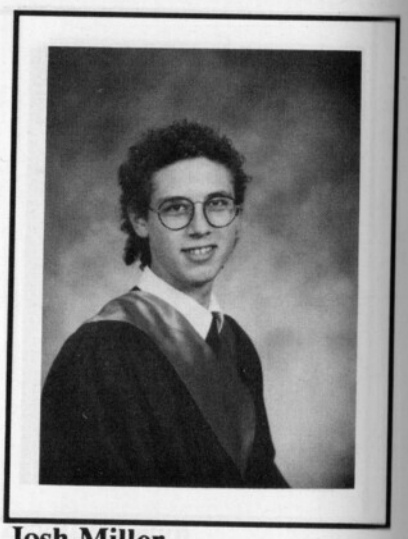
Claudia Martinez

Andy Matkovic

All you got to do is make it out of here, then it's all gravy, everyday for the rest of your life, GRAVY.



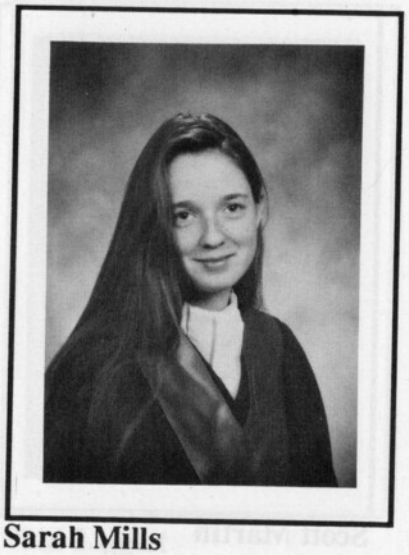
Dustin Mathews



Josh Miller

Well, Vic High life is over - finally! Now we must continue. Thanks to Jackie for all her love and support. To all my friends and foe's: Break on through, and don't look back.

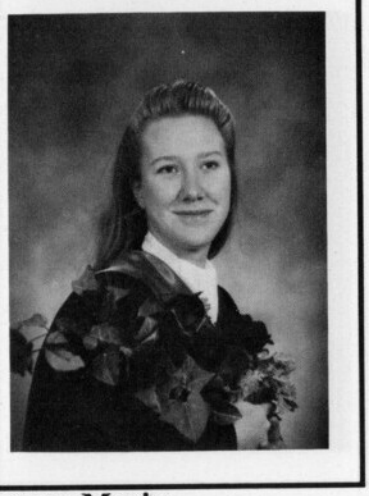
Kim Milligan



Sarah Mills

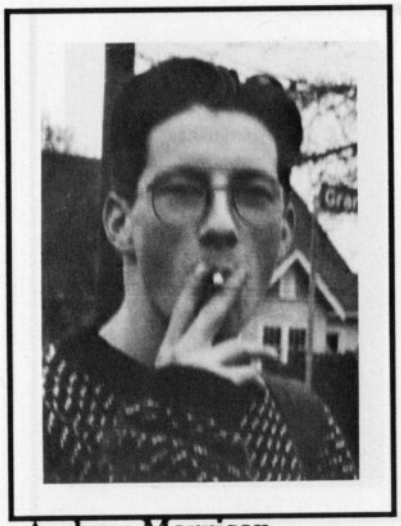
Joanne Mooney

" Just Jo" can be found in the smoke pit ducking from sea gulls, following fish tracks, and finding odd places to put piano's. Her Motto is "What's your's is mine and what's mine is my own!" Her favorite sayings are: "Hell-O", and "I dunno." To all my friends, "Thanks!" P.S. I'm not Donna.



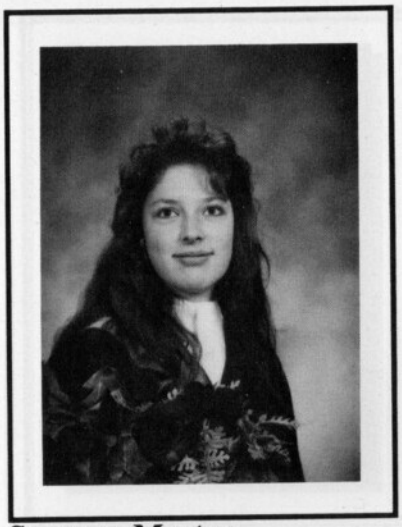
Sonora Morin

My annoying past times are: accidently dropping spare change by my fellow Scottish, reaching a certain volume of my intestinal gas, complaining about anything that doesn't go my way, and my hormonal addiction to the disgusting opposite gender. I love you Darcy, you Gom-nu! To all Aquarians, PPPPHLT!



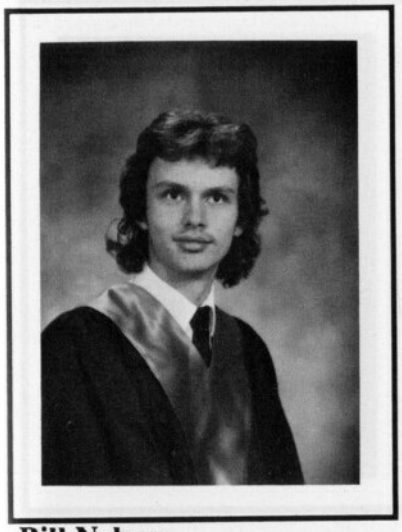
Andrew Morrison.

See you later Naomi.



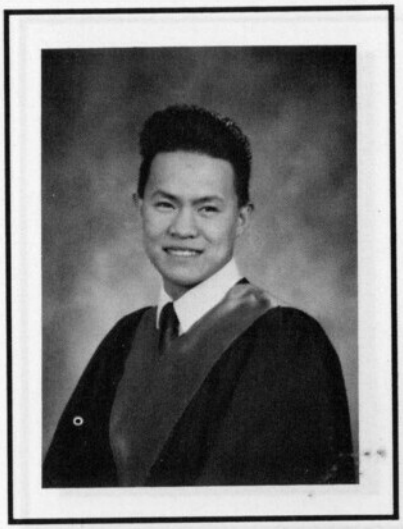
Suzanne Morton

Sue finds grad write-ups very hard to do, so she doesn't have much to say except, Bye Bye guys. That is, bye to both Leslie's, Paul, Angie,James, Jody, and Wayne.

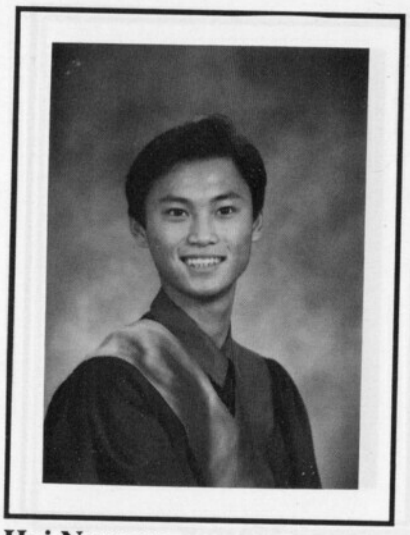


Bill Nelson

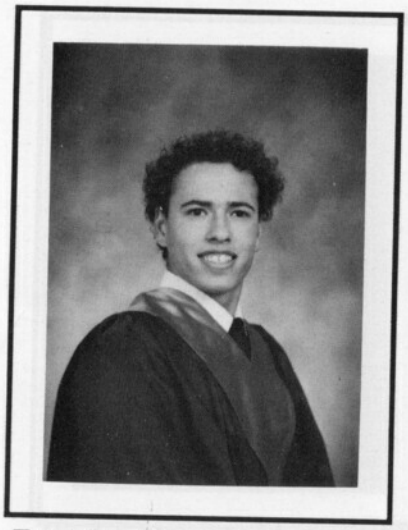
Angela Nguyen



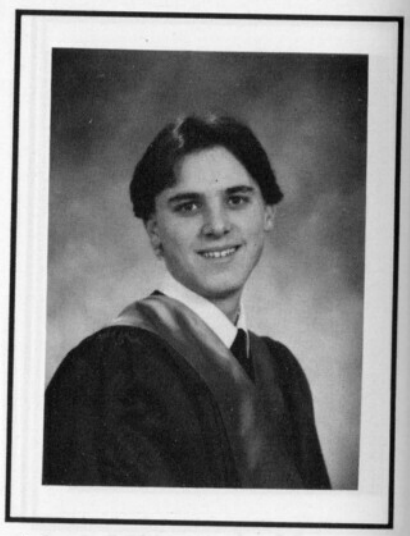
Dai Nguyen



Hai Nguyen



Zach North



Adam Noyce

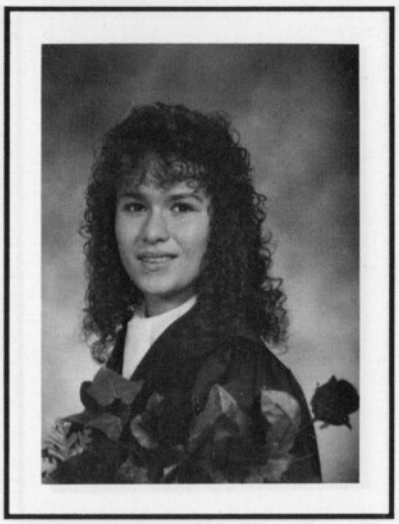
Hala-lea Nugent

Well we're finally finished High School guys and I wouldn't have been able to get through it without my friends, Lisa, Karma, Paula, and Hannah. We've had some fun times together and I hope we never forget them.

Tanya Ogertschig

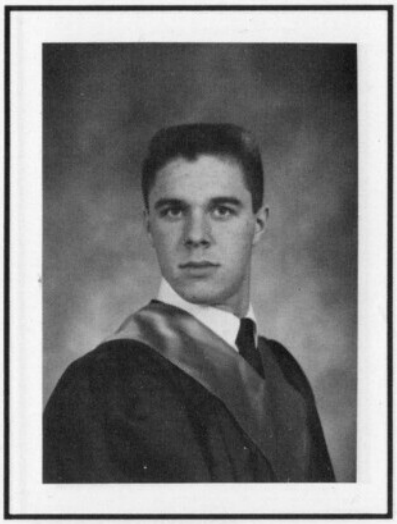
Ich liebe Dich Vater. Ich danke Dir,dass Du die einzige Person bist, dass mir uberhaupt geholfen hat Zusammen mit meinen Diabetes zu leben. Mein gegenwaertiger Traumist eine weltberuehmte photogvaphin zu werden. Von Deiner lieben Tochter, Tanya. I would also like to thank my best friend Sita Leveille' and her mother.

Alanda Page



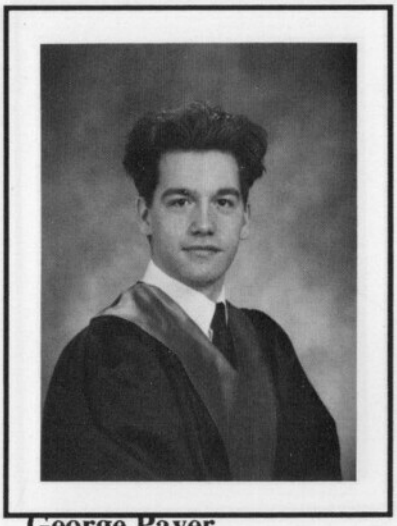
Marge Parent

Marge is an understanding person and is easy to talk to. But one thing you must remember is this: you should try to stay on her good side. We will all remember her for her resounding voice and constructive criticism.
To all my friends: Good luck in the future.



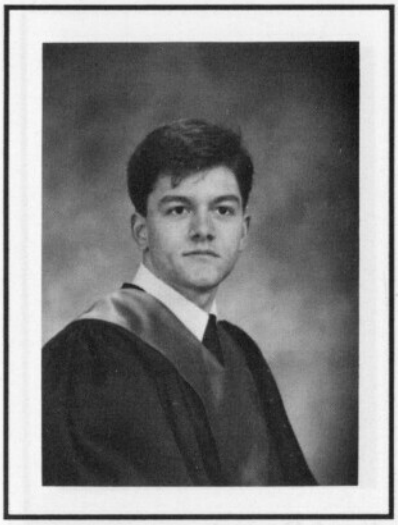
James Parr

1992 was a year of great confusion, although I did get my mind in gear, my body in tune, and down to graduating.I really enjoyed playing rugby under the direction of Mr. Jung, and, hope he has a prosperous season next year. To all of you that helped me through , I thank you. James Parr.

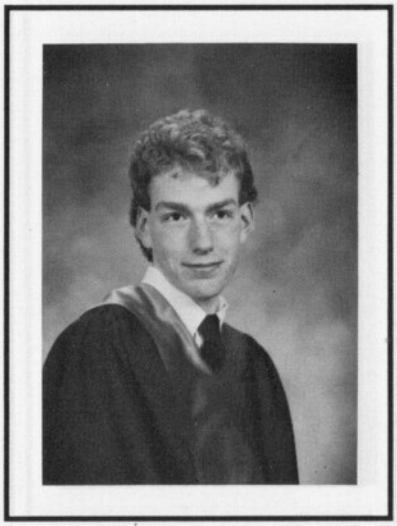


George Payer

George will best remembered for his egg white hair. You can see George walking down the hall holding his cow sling pen, mumbling about something pointless. George also enjoys getting his picture taken with Santa and singing the Vic High song, while walking through malls. George's parting words: "No, I do not look like Bud Bundy!"



James Payer

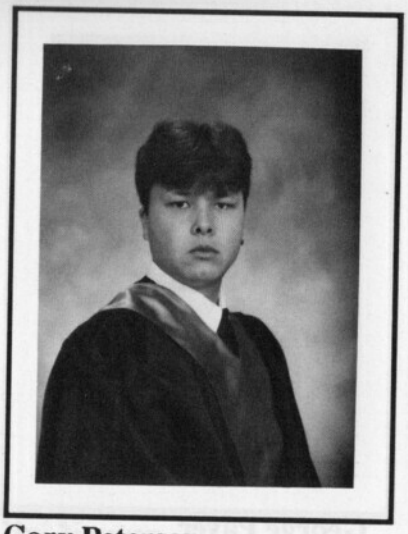


Brad Perkins

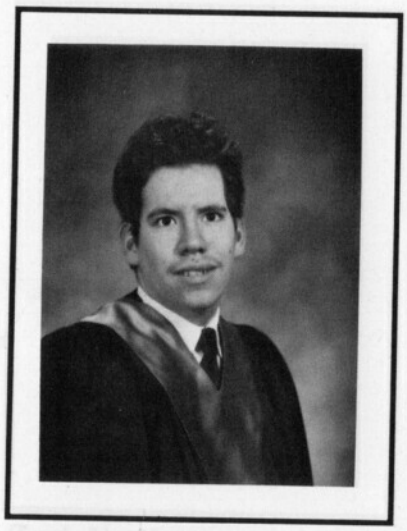
I love this school, and I will miss it. Walking the roof and experiencing the boiler room was super. Math was my nemesis but building a queen size bed in woodwork, Christmas decorating, and the outdoor were my highlights. Vic High will always be a part of me.

Donna Peterson

First to my friends just Jane, just Jo, just Jon, only Dora and Iddy
[well you know the rest], Pete, thanks for the memories,[wont say good or bad.] To Laural "How Rude." To the rest of the school, good bye and good luck. Finally to all my friends remember,"I'm not a slug!"
Ha Ha! Harsh! Love ya

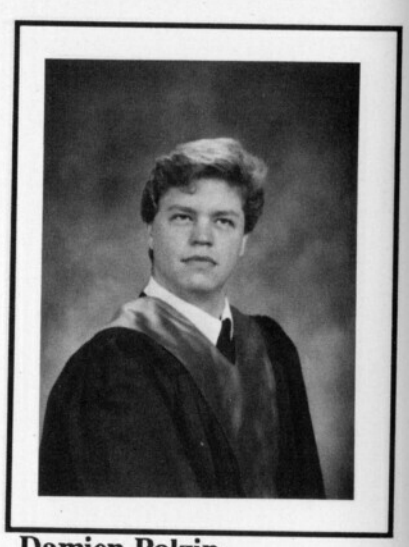


Gary Peterson

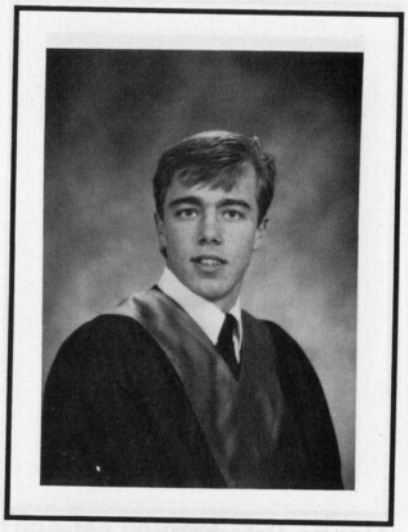


Shane Peterson

Well in 12 years of hell it was fun but, I have a life to tend to. Thank you for almost nothing but fun. Good luck in the new year.



Damien Polzin

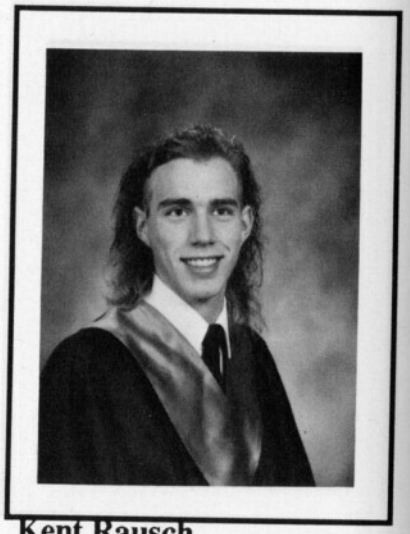


Dustin Ranogajec

My last twelve years have left me with a lot of memories. Some good and some bad, but the good ones I will probably remember the most. After school I plan to become a wealthy Electrical Engineer or even the Air Force. I hope to start a family later in my life. I leave Vic High saying LATER!

Bridie Rapson

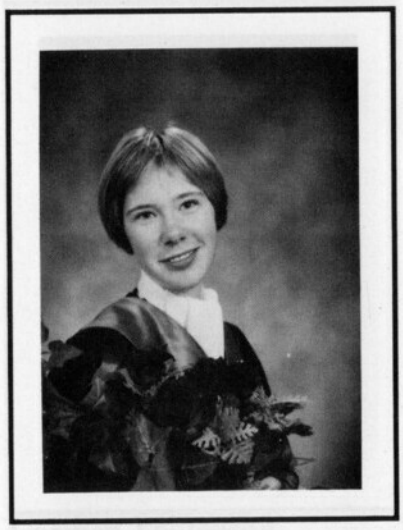
You mean this is it? I don't have to remember anything else? I'm finished? Done? I can go now? No more tests? ...Cool.



Kent Rausch

Ines Rei

Ines' thirteen years of school were memorable. Her fondest memory is July 11. She will never forget Kirsten's perverted sense of humor, dance class with Becky, INXS with Brandy, nice cat Becky [kick], the day Matt was her slave,and ham and cheese with Mark. She leaves saying,"Have fun in Physics Eric", "I like traffic lights", and "H.O.L.L.A.N.D."

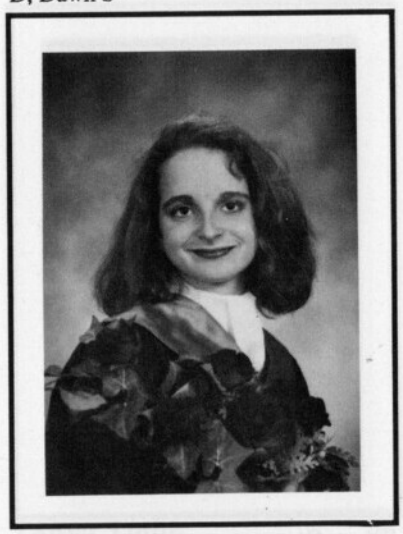


Julie Scott

My favorite time at Vic High was role playing an aggressive behavior in ICS class, right Mrs J? My greatest pet peeve is Mr Jung's spelling.
See you at the road races Smurf!
Thanks Ruckus Raisers! Booger!
Shoulder-Check!

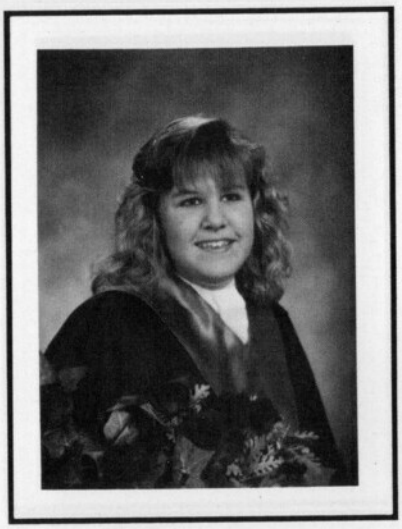
Angie Robinson

Well Grad is finally here, I'm glad to finally get on with my life! Thank to all my friends who encouraged me to stay. Especially Mike, who is a big God. I have lots of memories that will live on 4-ever. Thanx to all the people who have given them to me, especially Shayne, I love you. Best of luck Mike D, Andrea M, Karl L, Valt B, Melissa D, Dawn S



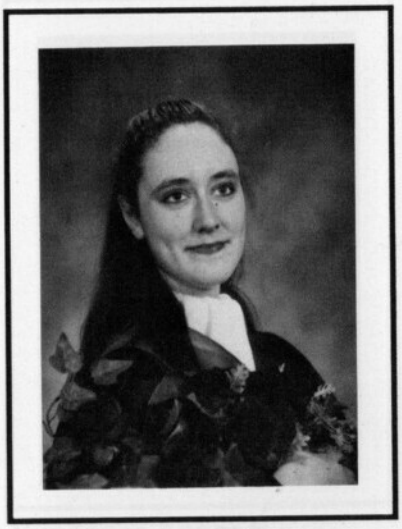
Tanya Silbernagel

I hear you smelling the flowers in the dawn of yester, year of memories past. We don't want her to run out of batteries. It was the best year, but the best is yet to come. Tanya has an outstanding personality and a best friend. What a rad little smiley red head!



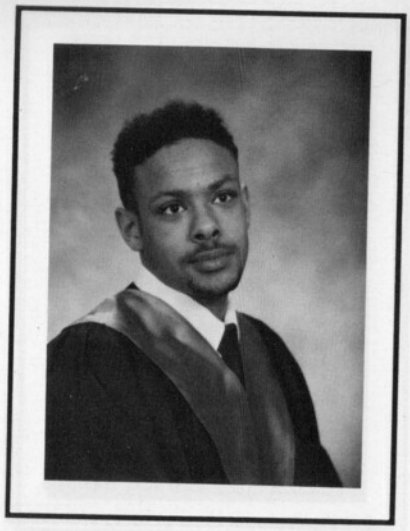
Laurel Rutherford

Grad at last! To T.T., L.L., and S. M., I'll always be Ms. Perfect! Thank you everybody for the memories. My parting words are: "Praise The Lord , I'm out of here.

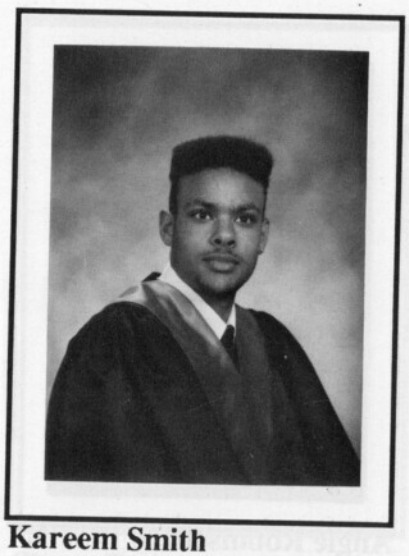


Annabelle Smith

I love animals, my best friends, my mom, my brother, my lover [that I don't have one], and the dust in the corner of my room. Thank goodness for funky leggings, Ferry boats, and buses. Thank-you AS, SM, DS, and MM, oh and to JJ as well for staying on the wall. I want to be famous and I hate Grad photos! Never forget your bus drivers! Thanks and Bye.

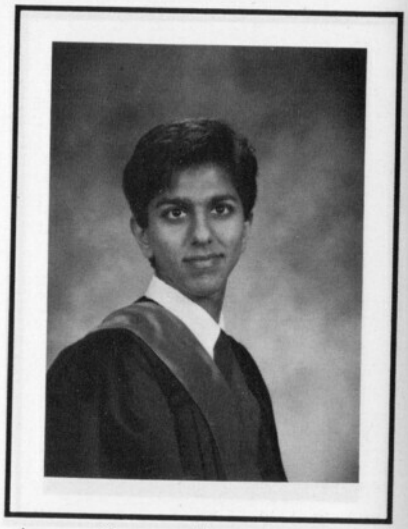


Kali Smith



Kareem Smith

I would like to say good-bye to all the teachers, you taught me well. I would also like to say good-bye to all the grade 11's. Also stay in school, it's cool!



Amyn Somani

Elissa Stec

My two years at Vic High were great! Thanks to all my friends and teachers, and especially all my bestest buds, Karma, Hala, Hannah, and Paula. I'll never forget banana splits at O.T., broken hearts, broken toes, and everything else we've shared together. Never forget my pengers, my socks and me, kay guys! Love ya!

Tina Storms

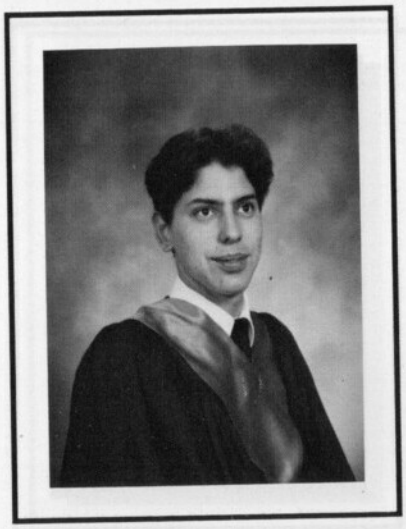
Carmen Stuart

Tracey Sundby

3-2-1 begin nervous breakdown NOW!! Thank-you for your patience Mr McHugh!

Frankie-Rae Swinimer

To all my new and wonderful friends, I leave you ... K.L, an everlasting friendship, A.S. supply of Gum! C.S. fond memories of metal! N.B. my nickname, A.D. a life long smile, to the O.T. crowd-rain-checks, and to Mike W. this unforgettable quote, "Anything worth having is worth waiting for!!"



Rama Tello

Thank God it's over. Uh... this year was rockin, sort of, I think. Uh... I guess. My point is this: I'm glad to be outta here, over, finished, gone, done, out, killer!

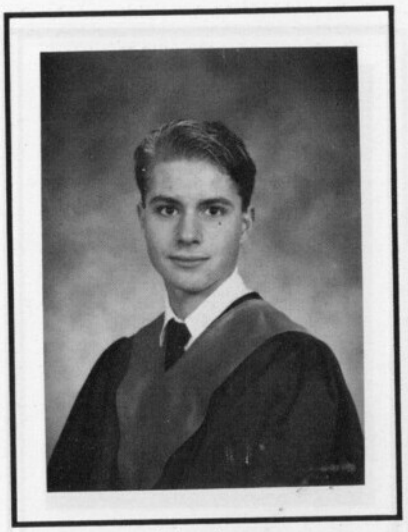
We love ya Rama! Don't ever change.

Carmen Thompson

"Hoover's" favorite memory will be the Grad Auction. Her friends found $33.00 to pay for her and they got their money's worth. Her favorite saying will be "Hi Carmen". To her friends LK, MA, TV, MD, JB, JA, SC, LB, BE, WG, TW, PT, etc. . . have fun on the wild side.

Tanya Tighe

I'd like to thank Leslie and all of my teachers for being so kind and supportive. Wishing everyone a full life of experience and learning. Please remember everything changes; we've got to work together to make a change for the better. Peace and Positive Energy.



Sundance Topham

Trang Tran

I am happy and proud to have graduated from Vic-High! I would like to thank all my teachers for two memorable years. I leave Vic High wishing my friends lots of luck and happiness in the future. Take Care! Bye Bye Everyone!

Grad Write-ups

Nicole Belanger

I've had enough! If you want to find me later on in life. . . you won't!
I had fun , I'll miss you all. Good luck Kimny, ha, I told you so. Lasha stayout of trouble! Nize get a man. Always M. later to you all.

Mike Dunnet

To Grad class of 92'. I hope all your dreams and wild fantasies come true. Best of luck to Angie R, Karl L, Valt B, Melissa D, Keep in Touch! P.S. : to all Grads of Lansdowne, who didn't follow the banwagon to Mt. Doug, Congratulations! You will be missed.

Nikki Evans

The first time I graduated I thought I knew what I wanted out of life, but after achieving it I changed my mind.I am extremely grateful to be able to have a second chance at re-education for free! To all the art majors - you'll be back, sooner or later, guaranteed!

Brendon Garnham

Brendon knows all, see's all, friend to all. Hugs Purple Boots, need we say more.

Kris Gislasan

Good-bye cruel... school. Miss you- I shall not, for I plan to leave earth to travel. Well at least travel. As a question to all who read this in the future (use your own answer), who are you really? I mean inside.
WARNING: Keep an open mind, least it suffocate.

Adam Newton

Adam learned nothing during his two-year tenure at Vic High. Real heros like George Bush, Arnold Schwartznegger, and Brain Mulroney, have taught him that all you need to succeed in life is a big gun and a small mind. After grading he plans to move to Texas, cut his hair, and join the U.S. Army. Shaggy Beard guy is dead.

Yolanda Oleksyn

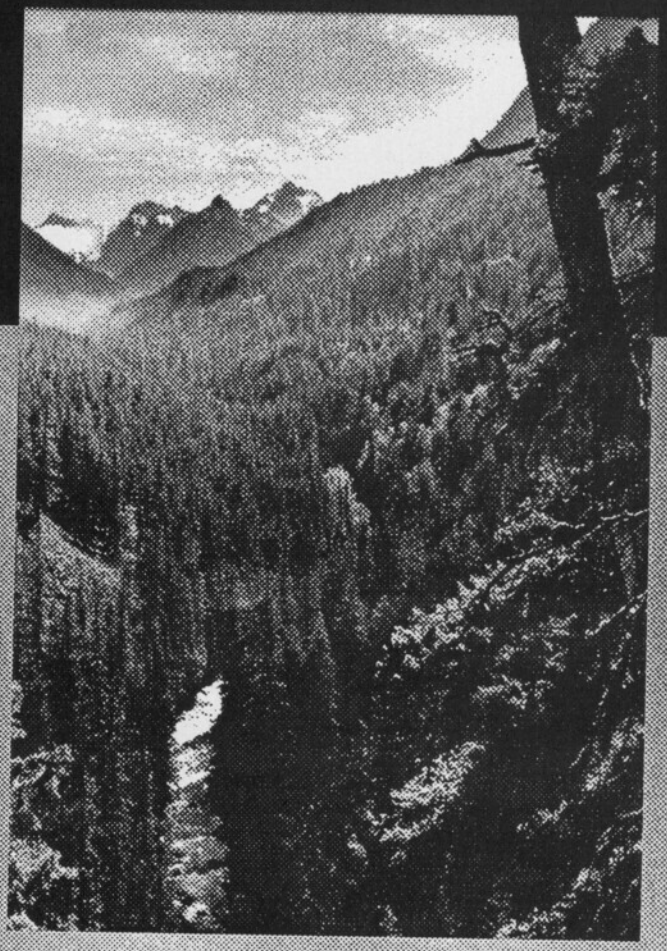
Finally !

Andrew Panter

Wow, what a hoot Vic High has been keep!!! Hanging out with all my blissed out buds has been a blast!!! I'll always cherish and remember Jason's lunchtime Frisbee visits. Later all you dizzy dudes and dudettes!!! Whooosh!!! Like wow man!!!

and any last words...

WHERE'S JOSH ?????????????



Seize The Day.

1992, what does it mean? More importantly, what does it mean to us? Some see it as the end. With the cute little ozone hole that is developing over North America, maybe they're right. I hope not.

Five hundred years ago Columbus "re"discovered the new world, and in that short period of time we have managed to take a beautiful, pristine land and turn it into a parking lot. I don't think this is what was supposed to happen. So here we are, faced with all this mess before us. What should we do? The funny thing is is that we are the next generation. Whatever decisions we make will eventually change the world we live in. Instead of sitting back and letting others solve our problems, we now have a chance to take our lives into our own hands. One day we will look back and realize just how much influence we had at this point in our lives. We are young and have incredible ideas and ideals. With the stuff we have locked away in our heads, we could rule the world. So much is changing today. When the next millenium arrives, we will be at the helm of society. How do we want to be remembered. It's up to us, seize the day.

All things are connected.
Whatever befalls the earth
befalls the children of the earth.
